Hardy takes readers through its characters events and ideas as he explores the story and its messages He identifies the book's literary techniques such as characterization embedded documents allusions and parallel narratives Whether Joseph Smith is regarded as author or translator it's noteworthy that he never speaks in his own voice rather he mediates nearly everything through the narrators Nephi Mormon and Moroni Hardy shows how each has a distinctive voice and all are woven into an integral whole As with any scripture the contending views of the Book of Mormon can seem irreconcilable For believers it is an actual historical document transmitted from ancient America For nonbelievers it is the work of a nineteenth century farmer from upstate New York Hardy transcends this intractable conflict by offering a literary approach one appropriate to both history and fiction Regardless of whether readers are interested in American history literature comparative religion or even salvation he writes the book can best be read if we examine the text on its own terms

How can I interpret patterns of key details to see overall meanings? Notice varied nonfiction genres. What are the essential features of this kind of text? How does the author employ them? What effects are they designed to have on the reader? Notice text structure. How does the author structure the text to connect details and ideas?
