The Literature Workshop Sheridan D. Blau, 2003 In this groundbreaking book Sheridan Blau introduces the literature workshop as the most effective approach to solving many of the classic instructional problems that perplex beginning and veteran teachers of literature Through lively re creations of actual workshops that he regularly conducts for students and teachers Blau invites his readers to become active participants in workshops on such topics as helping students read more difficult texts than they think they can read where interpretations come from the problem of background knowledge in teaching classic texts how to deal with competing and contradictory interpretations what's worth saying about a literary text balancing respect for readers with respect for texts and intellectual authority ensuring that literary discussions are lively and productive how to develop valuable and engaging writing assignments Each workshop includes reflections on what transpired and a discussion of the workshop's rationale and outcomes in the larger context of an original and practice based theory of literary competence and instruction

Resources in Education, 1998 American Book Publishing Record, 2000-07 Gendered Fictions Wayne

Martino, Bronwyn Mellor, 2000 Gendered Fictions helps students explore how fiction and nonfiction texts construct gender by encouraging readers to take up gendered reading positions that support or challenge particular versions of masculinity and femininity Students are invited to gain leverage on this process by using text based discussions and activities to consider such factors as generic characters and intertextuality in order to assess the readings they or others produce as well as to generate resistant or alternative readings when they so choose Negotiating Critical Literacies in Classrooms Barbara

Comber, Anne Simpson, 2001-06 Provides examples analysis of the negotiation of critical literacy in specific pedagogical sites actual classrooms elementary through adult Practical classroom focus appropriate for teachers and professional development International scope Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000 Library Media Connection, 2000 Literary Knowing
