Perez, 2007-10-29 Please note this is a Palgrave to Order title. PTO Stock of this book requires shipment from an overseas supplier. It will be delivered to you within 12 weeks. This is the first compilation of essays to bring together the most important U.S. Latino literary criticism of the last decade. This timely text has been long in coming as U.S. Latino literary criticism has grown exponentially throughout U.S. universities since 1995. Family Matters Marisel C. Moreno, 2012 Adopting a comparative and multidisciplinary approach to Puerto Rican literature, Marisel Moreno juxtaposes narratives by insular and U.S. Puerto Rican women authors in order to examine their convergences and divergences. By showing how these writers use the trope of family to question the tenets of racial and social harmony, an idealized past, and patriarchal authority that sustain the foundational myth of la gran familia, she argues that this metaphor constitutes an overlooked literary contact zone between narratives from both sides. Moreno proposes the recognition of a transinsular corpus to reflect the increasingly transnational character of the Puerto Rican population and addresses the need to broaden the literary canon in order to include the diaspora. Drawing on the fields of historiography, cultural studies, and gender studies, the author defies the tendency to examine these literary bodies independently of one another and therefore aims to present a more nuanced and holistic vision of this literature. The Construction of Latina/o Literary Imaginaries Blanca López de Mariscal, 2019-01-29 This book explores the cultural and historical imaginary expressed in literary works that emphasize Latina/o world views.
