Creating Classrooms for Authors Jerome Charles Harste, Kathy Gnagey Short, Carolyn L. Burke, 1988 Curricular framework and ideas for classroom reading and writing experiences Reading-Writing Connections Rui A. Alves, Teresa Limpo, R. Malatesha Joshi, 2020-06-02 This book shows that reading writing is a two way street that is burgeoning with research activity It provides a comprehensive and updated view on reading writing connections by drawing on extant research and findings It puts forward a new conception of literacy one that establishes reading and writing connections as the primeval ground for building literacy science It shows how an integrative view of literacy can have deep and lasting effects on conceptualizing literacy development in several orthographies and on improving literacy instruction and remediation worldwide The book examines in detail such issues as modeling approaches to reading writing relations literacy development reading and spelling across orthographies and integrative approaches to literacy instruction and remediation

Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04 Reading Writing Connections From Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading writing listening and speaking in K 8 classrooms Heller s highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts reading writing and literacy Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten primary 1 3 intermediate 4 6 and middle grades 7 8 instructional guidelines that offer generous detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection and a wealth of classroom vignettes examples of students oral and written language illustrations and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory research and practice In addition Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing across the curriculum greater emphasis on cultural diversity including new multicultural children s literature booklists that complement the general children s literature bibliographies and current information on alternative assessment emerging technologies the multiage classroom reader response to literature and thematic teaching The Reading/writing Connection Carol Booth Olson, 2011 The Third Edition features an array of new and updated individual reading writing strategies activities and mini lessons and it scaffolds these strategies in extended demonstration lessons that teachers can implement in their middle and secondary English classrooms Well respected author Carol Booth Olson extends far beyond most books intended for teachers of language arts by integrating reading and writing in creative theory based ways Already a classic in its field this book intends to explore and reinforce the reading writing connection and thus help teachers make visible to their students what it is that experienced readers and writers do when they make meaning from and with texts. Lauded by students and professors as a clear and straight forward book this new edition includes plenty of material about teaching the writing process and responding to literature and provides new and improved lessons and activities that help students learn specific strategies. New to this Edition New demonstration lessons that highlight students showing cognitive strategy use. More high school examples and references to high school texts throughout the book. A focus on 21 st century literacies throughout the book with specific activities influenced by the Partnership for 21st Century Skills Framework and the 21st Century English Skills Map. Differentiation activities in several demonstration lessons for different student populations.

Reading/writing Connections in the K-2 Classroom Leah Mermelstein, 2006. Reading Writing Connections in the K 2 Classroom demonstrates how through careful explicit assessing planning and teaching every student can understand the relationship between reading and writing. The text is filled with practical classroom strategies based on both theory and research. Focused on the goal of understanding the relationship between reading and writing the text demonstrates how to move students between the two to become more skillful readers and writers. In three parts the text explores the essential understandings needed to use the reading writing connection demonstrates how planning helps to use the reading writing connection and outlines teaching strategies to use the connection to strengthen your everyday encounters with students. Assessment is integrated into each chapter providing a clear image of what it looks like to assess in the service of student learning. Practical ways to integrate phonemic awareness phonics word study and spelling into planning and teaching reading and writing are incorporated throughout. Word study is integrated into every chapter to ensure a systematic approach to the topic.
