Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel,2023-01-01 This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields s experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction Shields s essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields s writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction These essays read Shields s fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction Reading, Writing, and Talking Gender in Literacy Learning Barbara J. Guzzetti,Josephine Peyto Young,Margaret M. Gritsavage,Laurie M. Fyfe,Marie Hardenbrook,2013-10-08 Until now there has been no systematic analysis or review of the research on gender and literacy With all the media attention and research surveys surrounding gender bias and the inequities that continue to flourish in education a synthesis of the research studies was needed to raise awareness of gender issues in learning and literacy to provide successful interventions and recommendations to educators and to point out the direction for future inquiries by examining the unanswered questions of the existing research For the convenience of readers the studies are organized by genre gender and discussion reading writing electronic text and literacy autobiography Published by International Reading Association The Journey Prize Stories 31 ,2019-09-24 For more than thirty years this celebrated anthology has introduced readers to the next generation of great Canadian writers With settings ranging from a Saskatchewan wheat field marked by crop circles to a dystopian metropolis where people are under constant surveillance the twelve stories in this collection represent the year s best short fiction by some of our most exciting emerging voices An aspiring artist looking for inspiration in the aliveness of the desert gets less and more than she bargained for when she signs up for a residency at a roadside motel After years of toiling to pay off a debt that has devastated his family a young Chinese fisherman makes a magical catch that will change the course of his life As a populist candidate stands poised to triumph at a political convention his campaign strategist and childhood best friend reflects on the dark legacy of their relationship A brutal assault on a Toronto taxi driver leads his friend on a desperate search for answers When troubling stories of women s encounters with aliens start to dominate the news cycle a reporter reluctantly returns to her hometown to cover the phenomenon A carpet collector reimagines his family s fractured history by weaving new tapestries to tell their stories Unsure of whether his client is really dying an end of life gift professional must assess the man s extravagant last wish A Ktunaxa grandmother tells a parable of why you shouldn t speak to Kupa owl at night Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky,2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations The Canadian Shields Carol Shields,2024-09-09 Newly discovered work by one of Canada s favourite writers The Canadian Shields brings together fifty short writings by Carol Shields 1935 2003 including more than two dozen previously unpublished short stories and essays and two dozen essays previously published but never before collected Invaluable to scholars and admirers of Shields s work the writings discovered in the National Library Archives by Nora Foster Stovel and presented to the public here for the first time reflect Shields s interest in the relationships between reality and fiction mothers and daughters and gender and genre They also reveal her love of Canada especially Winnipeg her home for twenty years Originally written for women s magazines travel journals convocation addresses and even graduate school term papers Shields s imaginative essays explore ideas about home Canadian literature contemporary women s writing and the future of fiction Whether autobiographical cultural or feminist in focus these works vividly illuminate the multiple chapters of Shields s writing life Margaret Atwood and Lorna Crozier frame Shields s texts with tributes to her work and impact An introduction by Stovel situates Shields as a Canadian author and subversive feminist writer demonstrating how American born and raised Carol Anne Warner became the Canadian Shields a quintessential and beloved Canadian writer and the only author to win both the Pulitzer Prize and the Governor General s Gold Medal for Fiction The Journey Prize Stories 28 ,2016-09-27 The celebrated annual fiction collection showcasing the best stories by the best new writers in
