

MEANS OF TRANSPORT

Read the text and write the name of the means of transport under the pictures.

Three students meet in Munich. Hans, from Germany, Frank from Switzerland and Peter from Austria. They know each other from university. Hans talks about his holiday in northern Germany. 'I went to the station by bus. There I took a train to the North Sea. My parents live on an island that can only be reached by ferry. On the island I have rode a bike. I love the North Sea because I can see the ships in the distance. My parents also have a sailboat, with which I often sail to another island.

Frank says 'I like to travel to other countries. Last year I was in Spain. There I rented a car and travelled through the country. In some of the cities I have taken a tram. In Paris I took the subway. Peter then tells. 'I love the mountains and nature and have travelled around with a scooter. Unfortunately, there were many lorries on the motorways. I don't like that.'

Answer the questions

1. What kind of transport do you use to get to school?

2. Which kind of transport did you take during your last holiday?

3. Do you prefer to travel by car or by train? Why?

4. Do you prefer to ride a bike or do you prefer to walk? Why?

5. What do you prefer, travel by plane or go on a boat trip? Why?

and ending at Gravesend illustrating some of the many changes to bus companies that have occurred

Reading at War, 1939-45 David Bilton, 2020-03-30 A history of life in the southern English town during World War II As in the Great War Reading in the Second World War was a town permanently in a state of flux So close to London so easily pinpointed by its proximity to the Thames with railway lines converging near the town center and with much of the town's industry geared up to essential war work it was an obvious target for the German Luftwaffe when the war broke out Knowing this the council had set up an efficient civil defense system aided by government finance Fortunately for the citizens although they were bombed on many occasions only one raid had any significant impact The book covers the daily life of a town ready for the worst but one that continued with its daily life and just got on with its efforts to aid the war effort The book is profusely illustrated with photographs illustrations and human interest stories Much of the material used has not been seen since the war so it provides a valuable and unique insight into daily life of the town David Bilton takes an in depth look at how the people of Reading coped during the conflict Interesting to read that suffering from German Air Raids was apparently minimal and the photographs as always are fascinating to see A brilliant series Books Monthly UK Railway Age, 1934 Trends in Geography Ronald U. Cooke, James H. Johnson, 2013-10-02 Trends in Geography An Introductory Survey reviews trends in geography including physical geography human geography and applied geography Topics covered include progress in geomorphology meteorology climatology hydrology historical geography transport geography and industrial geography along with the geography of rural settlements and the ecology of agricultural systems The importance of geography in area studies is also discussed This book is comprised of 26 chapters and begins by tracing developments in the field of geography followed by a discussion on the study of soils in geography and the economic geography of agriculture The following chapters explore the diversity of urban geography the role of geography in physical planning and economic planning planning studies in rural areas and geographical research on local government A cultural and historical perspective in area studies is presented by citing the case of Latin America The final chapter is devoted to geographical studies of developing areas focusing on the case of tropical Africa This monograph will be of interest to teachers students and practitioners of geography
