working in the field Papers in Theoretical Linguistics Niels Danielsen,1992-02-06 This volume contains eight papers by the late Niels Danielsen Danish linguist and philologist and serves as a fine introduction to this theory of linguistic universality The papers highlight the most important universals introduced by him such as Linguistic Polarity the Constitutional Axis of Language the Verbal Nuclei the Nomic Structure of Sentences the Transversal Relations and the Critical Field of Distribution All articles are reprinted in their original form except for the paper originally entitled Zur Universalität der Sprache which is here presented in an English translation for the first time The volume is completed by a biographical sketch of Danielsen by Laurits Rendboe a full list of his publications an index of languages and an index of authors

Form-Function Mapping in Content-Based Language Teaching Magdalena Walenta,2019-01-22 This book presents a form function mapping FFM model for balancing language and content gains within content based language teaching CBLT It includes a theoretical part which outlines the FFM model and drawing on the analysis of eclectic teaching methods and interlanguage restructuring proposes pedagogical tools for its implementation These tools which encourage mapping of language forms onto content knowledge are hypothesized to facilitate interlanguage restructuring thus helping CBLT learners in their struggle with L2 morpho syntax The empirical section presents the results of a quantitative qualitative study conducted among adult L1 Polish learners of English in a CBLT context It then goes on to translate the findings which reveal that the FFM model has a positive and significant influence on interlanguage restructuring as well as a favorable reception among CBLT learners into a set of pedagogical guidelines for practitioners

Simplicity and Typological Effects in the Emergence of New Englishes Thomas Brunner,2017-07-24 The book is based on a detailed corpus based investigation of the structure of noun phrases NPs in Singaporean English and Kenyan English with the aim of detecting on the one hand typological effects from substrate languages and on the other hand simplification patterns known to play a role in such varieties

Error Analysis Jack C. Richards,2015-12-14 The eleven essays in this book cover a wide range of topics from the role of interlanguage and the influence of external factors on the process of language learning to the development of syntax and the methodology of error analysis Collectively they provide a valuable perspective on the learning process which both enriches our theoretical understanding of the processes underlying second language acquisition and suggests ways in which teaching practice may best exploit a learner's skills

Studies in English Language and Teaching Herman Wekker,Inge de Mönnink,Jan Aarts,2023-11-27 Transfer and Interference in Language Monika Brügge-meier,Dietmar Fütterer,1984 The topic of this bibliography in its broadest sense is the subject of a wide range of academic disciplines Given these circumstances the particular associations and connotations of the terms transfer and interference in each of these areas are legion with resultant differences in meaning in the disparate literature on these subjects And yet it is in one way or another contact and interaction of languages in the speaker hearer and learner in language acquisition contexts as well as in society in general which is basic to these two concepts throughout the various disciplines The discovery of this basic unitary notion is surely one of the reasons for the new interest in these phenomena In light of all this a bibliography cannot at present avoid being highly selective in order to demarcate an interdisciplinary area of research in its own right and with its own status The establishment of such an area is one of our main aims The focus of interest in this bibliography admittedly is directed towards the psycholinguistics of language contact and interaction
