Readings In International Business:

Readings in International Business Robert Z. Aliber, Reid W. Click, 1993 This collection of readings provides a solid grounding in the major practical business decisions that students and managers face in a global setting The organization of the reader emphasizes general patterns of trade and investment flows while examining in depth the reasons for the internationalization of firms and the international dimension of various functional areas including finance accounting marketing and production In six sections the readings take up changes in international ownership patterns corporate strategy international marketing issues the basic financial decisions and taxation issues for a multinational firm and political risk Each section includes an introduction that outlines the basic ideas to be discussed as well as questions key terms and suggestions for further reading Robert Z Aliber is Professor of International Economics and Finance at the Graduate School of Business at the University of Chicago Reid W Click is Assistant Professor of Economics in the Lemberg Program in International Economics and Finance at Brandeis University Readings in International Business Indiana University. Bureau of Business Research, Hans Schollhammer, Richard N. Farmer, Robert W. Stevens, 1967 Readings in International Business Richard N. Farmer, 1983 Readings in International Business John Joseph Coyle, Edward J. Mock, 1965 Readings in International Business Transactions Edward F. Ryan, 1969* Readings in International Enterprise John Drew, 1995 This is a comprehensive up to date compendium of key readings on international business theory and practice Selected for the new Open University course on International Enterprise the collection includes some of the most influential articles to have appeared on the subject drawn from both sides of the Atlantic The readings are divided into two parts The first covers the theory and practice of developing international strategies and of human resource management across the world necessary to develop these strategies The second part of the volume covers different sectors of international enterprise communications marketing production finance and business ethics The volume should serve as a companion text to international business courses both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels International Business Strategy Peter Jennings Buckley, 1994 Readings in International Business Richard N. Farmer, 1984 International Business-1977 MUS International Business and Economic Studies, 1977 Selected Readings on International Business Transactions Hans Smit, Columbia University. School of Law, 1981 Readings in International Business Transactions Kojo Yelpaala, McGeorge School of Law, 1991 Readings in International Business Management: Profitability and business policy Subhash Lal, 1998 Readings in International Business Management: International business and multinational enterprises Subhash Lal, 1998 Introduction to International Business, 2004 International business, 1973 International Business Transactions Douglas Lee Donoho, 2013-10-04 As suggested by its title this e book presents student oriented materials focused on legal issues common to international business transactions With an emphasis on sales of goods and services the materials review international transactions from both the private law and governmental regulatory perspectives domestic and international Several features of the book distinguish it as a teaching tool from more traditional law school offerings First the book is offered in an electronic format which is designed to make extensive use of web based resources Among other advantages this format 1 provides much cheaper flexible and more accessible learning materials for students 2 takes advantage of the excellent web based resources that students are accustomed to using including multi media content and 3 creates a flexible framework that allows professors to adapt improve or otherwise modify content to suit their needs during successive iterations of the course Second the materials and format are designed to encourage students to take a more active role in their learning with an emphasis on skills building Each chapter presents a problem and typically asks students to address legal issues as a practicing lawyer would working through primary materials cases statutes and treaty texts Third the materials are written and prepared for the uninitiated and uninformed Basic background explanations are always provided and all questions posed in the text are meant to be answered by the students there are no abstract obtuse or unanswerable questions set out in the materials With guidance from their instructor students are required to examine the material provided not only to learn the relevant law but also to build the essential skills of effective lawyering
