Real Face Ken Smeaton, 1987      International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets      Australian National Bibliography, 1988      International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters      Ontological Necessities Priscila Uppal, 2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9 11 translation of the Anglo Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating Film Version of My Hatred Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard

The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne, 2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4 2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne's time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume's companions Volume 4 1 and Volume 4 3      Sound Intentions Peter McDonald, 2012-11-22 The rhymes in poems are important to understanding how poets write and in the nineteenth century rhyme conditioned the ways in which poets heard both themselves and each other writing Sound Intentions studies the significance of rhyme in the work of Wordsworth Keats Tennyson Christina Rossetti Hopkins and other poets including Coleridge Byron Elizabeth Barrett Browning Swinburne and Hardy The book's stylistic reading of nineteenth century poetry argues for Wordsworth's centrality to issues of intention and chance in poets work and offers a reading of the formal choices made in poetry as profoundly revealing points of intertextual relation Sound Intentions includes detailed consideration of the critical meaning of both rhyme and repetition bringing to bear an emphasis on form as poetry's crucial proving ground. In a series of detailed readings of important poems the book shows how close formal attention goes beyond critical formalism and can become a way of illuminating poets' deepest preoccupations, doubts and beliefs. Wordsworth's sounding of his own poetic voice in blank verse as well as rhyme is here taken as a model for the ways in which later nineteenth-century poets attend to the most perplexing and important voicings of their own poetic originality.
