Learning Bodies Julia Coffey, Shelley Budgeon, Helen Cahill, 2016-02-03 Learning Bodies addresses the lack of attention paid to the body in youth and childhood studies Whilst a significant range of work on this area has explored gender class race and ethnicity and sexualities all of which have bodily dimensions the body is generally studied indirectly rather than being the central focus This collection of papers brings together a scholarly range of international interdisciplinary work on youth with a specific focus on the body The authors engage with conceptual empirical and pedagogical approaches which counteract perspectives that view young people's bodies primarily as problems to be managed or as sites of risk or deviance The authors demonstrate that a focus on the body allows us to explore a range of additional dimensions in seeking to understand the experiences of young people The research is situated across a range of sites in Australia North America Britain Canada Asia and Africa drawing on a range of disciplines including sociology education and cultural studies in the process This collection aims to demonstrate theoretically empirically and pedagogically the implications that emerge from a reframed approach to understanding children and youth by focusing on the body and embodiment Stories of Life, Love and Laughter Donna Davis Prine, 2020-01-22 A memoir of family stories over the years created to last for an eternity
