Romans Road For The Deaf: A Step Of Faith Bryan Palumbo,2017-06-20 Will God still use you if you wander away from Him and later repent Many Christians think that God could never use them in His service because they were backslidden for a long time It's difficult for them to get involved in a church ministry because they feel guilty and ashamed for straying away from the Lord Even after they have repented and God has led them back to the church to grow strong in the Lord daily they continue to struggle in the area of service I know I was one of them However one night at a missions conference a missionary family sang a song Here am I Lord Send Me and I asked God if He would send me and use me God opened the door for me to go to the DeafNation World Expo with the Silent Word Ministries International team During the week God stirred my soul by showing me that Deaf people around the world need the Lord Jesus For twenty seven years I was a careless Christian and lived with the attitude that God will forgive me all the time God finally broke my hard heart and let me see what He really wanted me to do Through the burden God gave me to reach the Deaf around the world Romans Road for the Deaf was born It was a faith ministry and we had to step out in faith and trust Him to start The beginning was rough However God is always good and He has saved many Deaf and Hearing souls at DeafNation expos In this book you will be inspired to read how God has worked in us and through us in His powerful ways to reach many thousands in just eight hours a day at every city where we have been I pray that these stories will be a blessing to you and will help you to witness for Jesus with gladness and boldness wherever God may use you NLT Parallel Study Bible Tyndale,2011-08-31

The Boys of Riverside Thomas Fuller, 2025-06-03 The incredible story of an all deaf high school football team's triumphant climb from underdog to undefeated, their inspirational brotherhood, a fascinating portrait of deafness in America, and the indefatigable head coach who spearheaded the team by New York Times reporter and San Francisco Bureau Chief Thomas Fuller. The Boys of Riverside is another example of how anyone can achieve their dreams, making what appears impossible possible. Marlee Matlin Academy Award winner. In November 2021, an obscure email from the California Department of Education landed in New York Times reporter Thomas Fuller's inbox. The football team at the California School for the Deaf in Riverside, a state-run school with only 168 high school students, was having an undefeated season. After years of covering war, wildfires, pandemic, and mass shootings, Fuller was captivated by the story of this group of high school boys. It was uplifting. During the gloom of the pandemic, it was a happy story. It was a sports story, but not an ordinary one, built on the chemistry between a group of underestimated boys and their superhero advocate coach Keith Adams, a deaf former athlete himself. The team and Adams tackled the many stereotypes and seemed to be succeeding. Fuller packed his bags and drove seven hours to the Riverside campus. The Boys of Riverside looks back at the historic 2021 and 2022 seasons in which the California School for the Deaf chased history. It follows the personal journeys of their dynamic deaf head coach and a student who spent the majority of the season sleeping in his father's car in the Target parking lot. It tells the story of a fiercely committed player who literally played through a broken leg in order not to miss a crucial game, as well as myriad other heart-wrenching and uplifting narratives of players who found common purpose. Through their eyes, Fuller reveals a portrait of high school athletics, inspiring camaraderie, and deafness in America.
