extravagant and often rowdy sporting life of the time is reflected in his colorful depictions of the city. The fruit of immersive observation and a keen eye for the intricacies of social interaction, Egan's volumes are born from the atmospheric heart of Regency London, offering authentic insights and amusement in equal measure. The milieu that influenced Egan is palpable throughout his work, making it as much an artifact of historical curiosity as a literary endeavour. Real Life In London Volumes I and II is a must-read for aficionados of literary history and those interested in the social fabric of past eras. It not only enchants with its historical authenticity and linguistic flair but also serves as a portal to the Georgian age, inviting contemporary readers to a richly detailed world. Egan's work is recommended for its vibrant storytelling and the unparalleled window it offers into the life and character of early 19th-century London, making it an essential addition to the collection of any scholar or enthusiast of the period.

Turn This World Inside Out Nora Samaran, 2019-06-18. Violence is nurturance turned backwards, writes Nora Samaran. In Turn This World Inside Out, she presents Nurturance Culture as the opposite of rape culture and suggests how alternative models of care and accountability, different from call-outs which are often rooted in the politics of shame and guilt, can move toward inverting cultures of dominance and systems of oppression. When communities are able to recognize and speak up about systemic violence, center the needs of those harmed, and hold a circle of belonging that humanizes everyone, they create a revolutionary foundation of nurturance that can begin to repair the harms inflicted by patriarchy, white supremacy, and capitalism. Emerging out of insights in Gender Studies, Race Theory, and Psychology and influenced by contemporary social movements, Turn This World Inside Out speaks to some of the most pressing issues of our time.

Real Life In London John Badcock Pierce Egan, 2016-08-19. "They order these things better in London," replied the Hon. Tom Dashall to an old weather-beaten sportsman who would fain have made a convert of our London Sprig of Fashion to the sports and delights of rural life. The party were regaling themselves after the dangers and fatigues of a very hard day's fox-chace, and while the sparkling glass circulated, each anxious to impress on the minds of the company the value of the exploits and amusements in which he felt most delight, became more animated and boisterous in his oratory, forgetting that excellent regulation which forms an article in some of the rules and orders of our Free and Easies in London: that no more than three gentlemen shall be allowed to speak at the same time. The whole party, consisting of fourteen like a pack in full cry, had, with the kind assistance of the rosy god, become at the same moment most animated, not to say vociferous orators. The young squire Bob Tallyho, as he was called of Belville Hall, who had recently come into possession of this fine and extensive domain, was far from feeling indifferent to the pleasures of a sporting life, and in the chace had even acquired the reputation of being a keen sportsman, but the regular intercourse which took place between him and his cousin the Hon Tom Dashall of Bond Street notoriety had in 2 some measure led to an indecision of character and often when perusing the lively and fascinating descriptions which the latter drew of the passing scenes in the gay metropolis Bob would break out into an involuntary exclamation of Curse me but after all this only is Real Life while for the moment horses dogs and gun with the whole paraphernalia of sporting were annihilated Indeed to do justice to his elegant and highly finished friend these pictures were the production of a master hand and might have made a dangerous impression on minds more stoical and determined than that of Bob s
