Realism In European Literature:

Realism in European Literature Nicholas Boyle, Martin Swales, 1986-03-31 The essays in this collection which was originally published in 1986 address fundamental issues of literary realism that have long been given prominence by J P Stern the distinguished writer on German literature and author of the seminal study On Realism In the prevailing theoretical climate problems associated with literary realism assumed great urgency Such problems are the notion of literary truth to life the survival of the concept of realism in the light of modern hermeneutical theory the perspective adopted by the contemporaries of Barthes and inheritors of Nietzsche on the canonical prose writers of the nineteenth century and the future for an exegetical tradition represented in the work of Erich Auerbach On Realism J. P. Stern, 2021-12-16 First published in 1973 On Realism is a comprehensive introduction to the complex problem of literary realism Written from both a critical and philosophical perspective the book brings together the concrete study of literary cases and the conceptual analysis of the terms used in describing them It uses examples drawn from a wide range of European literature and engages in philosophical discussion to argue for a richer and freer sense of the concept than was more commonly in favour at the time of writing The book describes the literary forms of realism as an art of the middle distance and sets out its character and value against alternatives and distortions symbolism naturalism socialist realism faits divers and the literature of language consciousness On Realism will appeal to those with an interest in literary history the history of literary theory and literature and philosophy

The Age of Realism Frederick William John Hemmings, Giovanni Carsaniga, 1978-01-01 Realism Damian Grant, 2019-01-30 First published in 1970 this book provides an introduction to literary realism After considering what realism is and its philosophical roots it goes on to examine the emergence of the idea of realism in nineteenth century France and its gradual spread across the wider republic of letters This work will be of interest to those studying nineteenth century European literature European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2001-01-01 An anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of European literature Each chapter in this book is devoted to one particular school of movement from within a body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s Realism in European Literature György Lukács, European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2006-08-15 An anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of European literature Each chapter in this book is devoted to one particular school of movement from within a body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s Studies in European Realism György Lukács, 1964 An Introduction to Modern European Literature Martin Travers, 1997-11-24 Each chapter concludes with a detailed chronology of the major literary texts of each movement covering fiction drama and poetry Cover Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B.
