Realities Of Faith By Meland Bernard E:

The Minimalist Vision of Transcendence Jerome Arthur Stone, 1992-01-01 Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland, American Constructive Theologian, 1899-1993 W. Creighton Peden, 2010-08-11 This book deals with Bernard Eugene Meland's life as presented in his unpublished intellectual autobiography and thought as a constructive theologian who taught in the Divinity School of The University of Chicago 1945-64. When Meland was in the process of completing his doctoral studies at the University of Chicago he came into close association with Henry Nelson Wieman who was joining the faculty. Meland took the first course Wieman offered in which they read William Ernest Hocking's The Meaning of God in Human Experience Part IV and Whitehead's Religion in the Making. He audited Wieman's other courses. The philosophy of A. N. Whitehead played a large role in their relationship and theology. With the sudden death of G. B. Smith, Wieman became Meland's doctoral advisor. After completing the doctoral program, Meland spent the next year at Marburg University in Germany studying with Rudolf Otto. He came away from this experience having discovered that the stimulus and lure in the language of the arts had become for him an alternative to the moral way of expressing value, sensibility, and fulfillment of human experience. He returned from Europe to begin teaching at Central College in Missouri and in 1936 joined the faculty at Pomona College in Claremont, California. His association with Wieman continued in the 1930s as they co-authored American Philosophies of Religion 1936. While teaching at Central College, Meland authored Modern Man's Worship 1934 and at Pomona College published Write Your Own Ten Commandments 1938 and The Church and Adult Education 1939. In 1945, Meland joined Wieman at the Divinity School as Professor of Constructive Theology. Although Wieman soon retired, their connection continued throughout Wieman's life. The Second World War had concluded and Meland was in a state of anguish and despair over the war and especially by the atomic bomb. In this troubled state of mind, he published Seeds of Redemption 1947, America's Spiritual Culture 1948, and The Reawakening of Christian Faith 1949. His next two publications were Higher Education and the Human Spirit 1953 and Faith and Culture 1955, with the latter considered by many as his most important work. While teaching at Chicago, Meland twice served as The Barrows Lectures in India. His lectures in 1957-58 were published as The Realities of Faith 1962. In 1963-64, he continued his theme of the relationship between faith and culture by focusing on the impact of secularization on modern cultures. These lectures were published as The Secularization of Modern Cultures 1966. His last book was Fallible Forms and Symbols 1977. In the first section of this book, Meland's thought is considered under four headings: Metaphysical View, Method, Doctrine of God, and View of Religion, followed by an evaluation. Section two is devoted to his Later Writings, followed by a conclusion.

God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey, 2016-04-22 Who is God? The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age. Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God? How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are? God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical pluralistic and interfaith age Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians David Burrell William Placher Bruce Marshall in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology philosophy and faith traditions this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts Bernard Eugene Meland's Unpublished Papers John N. Gaston, 2012-12-18 Bernard Eugene Meland 1899 1993 was a leader in the pragmatic tradition of constructive theology associated with the University of Chicago This volume contains more than forty six previously unpublished lectures reports and other personal documents that Meland wrote at various times between 1937 and 1979 It is a companion volume to W Creighton Peden's book Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland American Constructive Theologian 1899 1993 and is intended to give the reader a deeper understanding of Meland's methods and thought

Transforming Process Theism Lewis S. Ford, 2000-05-18 Process theism in a variety of manifestations and modifications stemming from Whitehead's original suggestions dominates discussions of philosophical and natural theology in Europe and America In Transforming Process Theism Ford argues that subsequent modifications of Whitehead's original line of thought mask a fundamental and unresolved aporia in that original proposal since only past or objectified determinate events can influence present experiences and since God as conceived by Whitehead is never fully determinate or objectifiable as a past event it is difficult to see how this divine persuasive power can have any influence on the present as a source of creativity and genuinely new possibilities for enactment Ford meticulously reconstructs and evaluates Whitehead's own versions of theism and he critically appraises the most influential subsequent modifications of these unrecognized variants by other process thinkers He recovers the original trajectory of Whitehead's continuous revision of his conception of God and forges an appropriate solution to this central aporia He concludes that consistent with Whitehead's overarching metaphysical principles there is another kind of causal influence that does not require objectification and is the opposite of past determinateness The future conceived as active offers an account of subjectivity which is both universal and transcendent God according to Ford's revisions must be understood as this particular but indefinite creativity or universal activity of the future bestowing subjectivity on each present occasion of experience without ever becoming determinate Ritschl in Retrospect Darrell Jodock, 2020-08-31 Albrecht Ritschl 1822 1889 looms large in the second half of the nineteenth century He redirected theology from speculative idealism toward a more concrete historical apprehension of the Bible the church and Christian life Ritschl in Retrospect reassesses Ritschl's rich legacy and current import especially on such still pertinent topics as his attempt to reinvigorate the Reformation tradition his reflections on the communal dimensions of church his recognition of the centrality of the kingdom of God his community based Christocentric reading of the Bible his criticisms of classical theism and his thoughts on religion and science Joining Darrell Jodock in this reassessment are the following leading historians and theologians William R Barnett Clive Marsh Richard P Busse Hans Schwarz David W Lotz Rich M Wall Jr Gerald W McCulloh Claude Welch Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1964 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December

Transfiguration Frank Burch Brown, 2018-06-15 Brown proposes a theory of poetic metaphor that attempts to account for literature's complex role in the discovery and creation of significant patterns within both language and life He shows that while poetic and conceptual modes of discovery are different they are nevertheless mutually interdependent In particular Brown offers a new view of the way in which theological and metaphysical concepts grow out of and are transfigured by metaphoric expression This view is expressed in a detailed and original analysis of the structure and dynamics of T S Eliot's Four Quartets that lies at the heart of the study Originally published in 1983 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Render Unto God James Newton Poling, 2012-03-01 What marks principles and values from our study of Jesus can guide our reflections about the church and its witness in a world of economic injustice What kinds of principles ought to be part of an ecclesiology in a world where family violence is epidemic So asks author James Poling in his exploration of the role of faith and religious practice as a resource for those who are economically vulnerable to domestic violence In this groundbreaking work Poling focuses his research on women and children in working class and poor communities of three cultures analyzing the forces that define and sustain economic vulnerability and detailing how such vulnerability affects the daily lives of people within these communities He looks at how the church can function as a source of healing and empowerment for persons who are trapped by domestic violence and economic vulnerability and develops models for prevention of violence and of practical ministry for pastoral care of the victims and perpetrators Way of Blessing Way of Life Clark M. Williamson, 1999
