The Reality of Prayer Edward M. Bounds, 2007-12 The Reality of Prayer Edward McKendree Bounds, 1924 Reality, 1928 The Reality of Prayer Edward M. Bounds, 2015-06-04 Edward McKendree Bounds did not merely pray well that he might write well about prayer He prayed because the needs of the world were upon him He prayed for long years upon subjects which the easy going Christian rarely gives a thought and for objects which men of less thought and faith are always ready to call impossible From his solitary prayer vigils year by year there arose teaching equaled by few men in modern Christian history He wrote transcendently about prayer because he was himself transcendent in its practice As breathing is a physical reality to us so prayer was a reality for Bounds He took the command Pray without ceasing almost as literally as animate nature takes the law of the reflex nervous system which controls our breathing Walking in the Reality of Answered Prayers Joseph Olude, 2022-12-16 Have you been praying and still not received an answer Would you want all your prayers to be answered Then Walking in the Reality of Answered Prayers is a must read for you Learn four keys that will guarantee answers to your prayers Prayer: a Force That Causes Change David Williamson, 2008-06-25 This book is a call to prayer a call from lethargy and apathy that is so common today to effective prayer This is a call to unlimited prayer prayer that has great power and obtains wonderful results Christian prayer is a source of great blessing and it is a means of focusing God's power and might on our needs and problems It brings great answers if we will pray Why limit prayer when God gives breathtaking answers when we pray Prayer has great power and brings wonderful results It is like unleashing a dam of water the pent up power rushes out of the reservoir and the power affects everything it contacts it brings change This book is a series of articles on prayer A Call to Prayer is the first of four volumes on the prayer life These articles were originally published in the online newsletter Voice of Thanksgiving The articles are intended as lessons in prayer written to promote thinking about prayer and to encourage further exploration of an effective prayer life They were also written to foster a growth in devotion to God and the Christian life of faith These articles are intended to encourage going to the Holy Spirit School of Christian life and prayer where we learn to pray not just prayers but effective faith filled prayers Prayer David Marshall, Lucinda Mosher, 2013-11-01 Prayer Christian and Muslim Perspectives is a rich collection of essays scriptural texts and personal reflections featuring leading scholars analyzing the meaning and function of prayer within their traditions Drawn from the 2011 Building Bridges seminar in Doha Qatar the essays in this volume explore the devotional practices of each tradition and how these practices are taught and learned Relevant texts are included with commentary as are personal reflections on prayer by each of the seminar participants The volume also contains a Christian reflection on Islamic prayer and a Muslim reflection on Christian prayer An extensive account of the informal conversations at the seminar conveys a vivid sense of the lively penetrating but respectful dialogue that took place The Reality of Prayer Edward McKendree Bounds, 2007-12-01 Today's Prayer Stephen Kyeyune, 2019-05-30 This book is written to all kinds of people because all of us need to pray Praying means asking None of us is exempted from praying because we are all dependants in one way or another Everything that is not God depends on God We are inadequate because there is no time we don't have expectations to meet We have shared human desires For example everyone needs to be loved We are all exclusively dependants on God because the desires of the human heart can only be found in the Lord Trying to fix things apart from God is the recipe of failure Praying is the greatest fellowship with God We pray to the all sufficient God because we are insufficient by ourselves Humanity with all human resources cannot save or fulfill itself Our desires are endless and are constantly changing For example our eyes are never satisfied with seeing we always want to see something new Our ears are never satisfied with hearing we always want to hear the current news Likewise the soul is never tired of yearning for the transcendent People take different avenues when seeking for fulfillment but only those who have discovered the power of prayer experience true fulfillment We are called to pray unceasingly because there is constantly a feeling of emptiness when we do not communicate with God Emptiness is the reality of the void that colonized the heart which was once a sacred space occupied by the Divine Praying is to be intimate with God it is having God's ear and eye in order to see the earthly things from the heavenly perspective
