Reason At Work Introductory Readings In Philosophy:

Reason at Work Steven M. Cahn, Patricia Kitcher, George Sher, 1984 REASON AT WORK is designed for Introduction to Philosophy courses where the instructor prefers to use a collection of readings to introduce the broad divisions of the discipline This edition includes sixty two readings organized into the six major branches of philosophical inquiry Ethics Social and Political Philosophy Epistemology Metaphysics Philosophy of Religion and Philosophy of Mind , Religion Within Reason, Second Edition Steven M. Cahn, 2025-02-27 Most believers and their critics agree that religious commitment relies on the acceptance of supernaturalism Steven M Cahn argues to the contrary He maintains that theism is neither necessary nor sufficient for adherence to a religious outlook He writes in a nonpolemical spirit about morality the problem of evil faith miracles heaven mystical experience and religious diversity His book develops a strong case for the reconciliation of science and religion Is the Market a Test of Truth and Beauty?: Essays in Political Economy Leland B. Yeager, 2011 Virtue and Vice: Volume 15, Part 1 Ellen Frankel Paul, Fred Dycus Miller, Jeffrey Paul, 1998-02-13 The essays in this volume examine the nature of virtue and its role in moral theory Rethinking Sartre John C. Carney, 2007 This work reexamines Sartre's phenomenology from the perspective of contemporary debates in political theory with particular attention to the reemergence of theories of human nature For Sartre any construct that stood between the self and its direct encounter with the world was suspect Sartre's version of direct realism is a strong refutation of the new essentialism that has emerged in recent years as a back door invocation of theories of human nature This book provides an account of the major ideas that inform the new essentialism and that serve to further identify it as other than what it claims to be a scientific grounding of human behavior Instead from the perspective of Sartre's realism it is exposed as an abstract ideology One aspect of this new essentialism has been its encouragement of ideological claims about human essences historically and culturally derived attributes of individuals that it is alleged define individual human existence itself Thus human freedom is diminished even while essentialist categories such as male aggression become an overlooked underpinning for political ideology Sartre's later philosophical account of why essentialist theories of human nature are particularly damaging in relation to political theory is explained with an eye towards the current global danger wherein ideologies of human nature are increasingly masked as religion Sartre's philosophy insists that the full exposition of human freedom and agency must be established first for only then can the life of history and culture enhance and not detract from the actualization of humanist goals It explicates this concept first through a study of Sartre's early article on Intentionality and then the larger work Transcendence of the Ego A detailed account is given of Sartre's direct realism in which the intentional structure of consciousness emerges as evidence against essentialist claims of human nature Book jacket A Teacher's Life Robert B. Talisse, Maureen Eckert, 2021-08-24 Steven M Cahn belongs to that exclusive class of professors who have not only contributed influentially to the leading debates of their discipline but have also written insightfully about the academic vocation itself This volume comprises thirteen essays authored by Cahn's colleagues and former students presented in his honor on the occasion of his twenty fifth year as professor of philosophy at the City University of New York Graduate Center. The essays focus on topics that have been central to Cahn's philosophical work such as the teaching of philosophy, the responsibilities of philosophy professors, the nature of happiness and the concept of the good life.

CONTRIBUTORS Norman Bowie, Steven M. Cahn, Randall Curren, Maureen Eckert, Alan Goldman, Tziporah Kasachkoff, Peter Markie, John O'Connor, David Rosenthal, David Shatz, George Sher, Robert Simon, Douglas Stalker, Robert B. Talisse, Christine Vitrano.

In the Socratic Tradition Tziporah Kasachkoff, 1998. This practical guide for teaching philosophy brings together essays by two dozen distinguished philosophers committed to pedagogy. Addressing primarily practical issues such as how to motivate students, construct particular courses and give educational exams, the essays also touch on theoretical issues such as whether moral edification is a proper goal of teaching ethics. An excellent sourcebook for graduate students just learning to teach as well as for professors searching for new strategies and inspiration or called upon to teach courses outside of their specialties.

Ethics Rev. James L. Breed, Ph.D., 2017-08-10. Ethics by Rev. James L. Breed, Ph.D. Ethics: An Introduction to the Western Schools of Thought in Moral Philosophy is an introductory textbook in moral philosophy. It provides an outline of the main schools of thought in the Western philosophical traditions with a brief analysis of each school of thought and the views of its critics. This text is designed to cover the major theories and schools of thought in moral philosophy: the divine command theory, the deontological theories, natural law theory, virtue ethics, other teleological theories including egoism and hedonism, the ethics of community, utilitarianism, existentialist ethics, individualism and radical individualism, relativism, realist and absolutist theories, feminist ethics, environmentalist ethics, the focus on the need for individual judgment and moral commitment and contextualism.

Puzzles & Perplexities Steven M. Cahn, 2002. These essays present a balanced picture of Cahn's wide ranging work from free will to affirmative action, from belief in God to the teaching of philosophy.
