Reasonable Faith The Scientific Case For Christianity:

Reasonable Faith: The Scientific Case for Christianity Audio CD, 2006-08-09 In this CD Dr Wile lays out a complete argument for the validity of the Christian faith He begins with the scientific evidence that demonstrates the existence of God Based on his arguments the listener will quickly realize that science unerringly points to the existence of a supernatural creator He then uses medical science and historical science to demonstrate quite clearly that the Creator is the God of the Bible after listening to this tape you will understand that the Christian faith can be backed up with scientific evidence This is a recorded presentation based on the book Reasonable Faith it is NOT the book on CD Reasonable Faith Jay L. Wile, 1997 Reasonable Faith William Lane Craig, 2008 This updated edition by one of the world's leading apologists presents a systematic positive case for Christianity that reflects the latest work in the contemporary hard sciences and humanities Brilliant and accessible Reasonable Faith Americo Tulipano, 2019-10-24 Christians and non Christians alike are troubled by powerful questions Why do innocent people suffer Why isn't spiritual truth objectively provable How can evolution be reconciled with belief in God What is a soul What is moral truth How much hard history do the gospels contain What did Jesus mean when he spoke of perfection What is evil Clear concise answers to these and 265 other questions are offered in Reasonable Faith Backed by many years of inquiry and research this book takes on questions that have been avoided or given terse treatment by other Christian answer books In the process of facing such questions this work provides an honest and reasonable basis for passionate Christian faith Like a breath of fresh air wonderful Dr Francis Collins Director of the National Institute of Health Author of The Language of God A masterpiece Brother Aelred Reid Benedictine Monk St John's Abbey Collegeville Minnesota Beautifully written and diligently researched Reverend Richard A Santella Retired United Methodist Minister Wonderful Joan Roughgarden Professor of biology Stanford University Author of Evolution and Christian Faith The Study of Science and Religion Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm, 2018-06-06 The main aim of this book is to contribute to the relationship between science and religion This book aims to do constructive theological work out of a particular cultural context The point of departure is contemporary Swedish religion and worldviews One focus is the process of biologization i.e. how the worldviews of the general public in Sweden are shaped by biological science Is there a gap between Swedes in general and the perceptions of Swedish clergy The answer is based on sociological studies on science and religion in Sweden and the United States Furthermore the book contains a study of Swedish theologians from Nathan Soderblom to the present Archbishop Antje Jackelen and their shifting understanding of the relation between science and religion The philosophical aspects of this relation are given special consideration What models of the relation inform the contemporary scholarly discussion Are science and religion in conflict separate or in mutual creative interaction

Unreasonable Faith James Fodor, 2022-06-29 He has written or edited more than 30 books his arguments for God and Jesus are frequently cited by Christian apologists around the world and he has severely overstated his case through a series of blatant mischaracterizations and philosophical blunders You may have heard of William Lane Craig a professor of philosophy at Talbot School of Theology who is known for debating atheists but even if you haven't you have probably heard his arguments through followers and fans He is known for painting faith as the reasonable road and falsely claiming that he can prove the validity of his religion From his work attempting to show evidence for Jesus' resurrection to his development of the Kalam cosmological argument for the existence of God Craig is respected among his peers on the Christian side of the religious spectrum But is that deserved What's at the core of these arguments Are they philosophically sound More importantly is this Unreasonable Faith an excellent destruction of W L Craig's entire apologetics Cogently argued and factually accurate this is required reading for anyone keen to question the soundness of anything W L Craig has argued over the decades Which makes it an invaluable resource for refuting Christian apologetics generally Richard Carrier author on the historicity of Jesus This book should be required reading for anyone who is proposing to debate William Lane Craig on the existence of God It should also be something that those who debate Craig on that topic advertise this book gives an accurate idea of the amount of material that needs to be provided to begin to address the usual panoply of arguments that Craig puts forward in a debate Professor Graham Oppy Monash James Fodor has a graduate degree in physics at the University of Melbourne and is a research assistant in structural biology at Monash University With a keen interest in philosophy he writes for the Rationalist magazine on various subjects in religion and epistemology As president of the University of Melbourne Secular Society he has engaged in numerous discussions and public debates concerning religion with a focus on secular morality and the evidence for the resurrection of Jesus He also has a keen interest in effective altruism and computational neuroscience

Behold the Man Peter S. Williams, 2024-06-18 After a substantial new essay examining the nature of a properly skeptical historical inquiry into Jesus of Nazareth in the context of contemporary worldviews from pre modernism to meta modernism Behold the Man presents revised essays on an eclectic range of issues from how the Epistle of James treats Jesus as Divine within decades of the crucifixion and an evaluation of recent arguments about the dating of the Fourth Gospel to debunking claims about Jesus and ancient aliens and furthering debate about the resurrection With a foreword by eminent New Testament scholar Craig L. Blomberg and extensive recommended resources Behold the Man Essays on the Historical Jesus represents a wide ranging interdisciplinary engagement with historical Jesus studies

WHY I CAN'T BE: Atheist Bryce Neuberger, 2025-03-31 This short book explores the compelling reasons to believe in the existence of God and the truth of Christianity through a series of philosophical and historical arguments In this concise 25 page book Bryce Neuberger examines the improbability of atheistic naturalism the reliability of the Bible the evidence for Jesus' life death and resurrection and why belief in God is rational Whether you're new to apologetics or looking to strengthen your faith this book offers clear logical arguments for the Christian worldview in a short digestible format

A Reasonable Faith Rubens Ruba, 2011-03-18 Christians are often accused of having blind faith Looking at various questions relating to apologetics the author attempts to make the case that Christianity is unique and stands the test of rational and reasonable arguments There is no conflict between faith and reason He answers objections relating from Science the reliability of the Bible to the arrogant accusation that Christ is the only way Whether you are investigating Christianity for the first time or whether youre a Christian whos wondering how to respond to objections skeptical friends raise this book gives helpful guidance
