Pruitt, 2013-04-01 This book highlights the important role youth can play in processes of peacebuilding by examining music as a tool for engaging youth in such activities As Lesley J Pruitt discusses throughout the book music as expression as creation as inspiration can provide many unique insights into transforming conflicts altering our understandings and achieving change She offers detailed empirical work on two youth peacebuilding programs in Australia and Northern Ireland countries that appear overtly peaceful but where youth still face structural violence and related direct violence at the community level She also pays careful attention to the ways in which gender norms might influence young people s participation in music based peacebuilding activities Ultimately the book defines a new research area linking youth cultures and music with peacebuilding practice and policy The Concise Guide to Global Human Rights Daniel Fischlin, Martha Nandorfy, 2007 Lays the groundwork for understanding issues relating to global rights across a wide range of topics Making Waves Frederick Lau, Christine R. environments sometimes in unexpected ways and with surprising results They see these traveling musics in Hawai i Asia and the Pacific as making waves that is not only riding flows of globalism but instigating ripples of change What is the nature of those ripples What constitutes some of the infrastructure for the wave itself What are some of the effects of music landing on transported to or appropriated from distant shores How does the Hawai i Asia Pacific context itself shape and get shaped by these musical waves The two poetic and evocative metaphors allow the individual contributors great leeway in charting their own course while simultaneously referring back to the influence of their mentor and colleague Ricardo D Trimillos whom they identify as the wave maker The volume attempts to position music as at once ritual and entertainment esoteric and exoteric tradition and creativity within the cultural geographies of Hawai i Asia and the Pacific In doing so they situate music at the very core of global human endeavors
