Rebuilding Lives After Domestic Violence Hilary Abrahams, 2010 This book gives women the opportunity to explain why they were powerless to leave to describe how having no money nowhere to go and no confidence in your ability to stand on your own feet and protect yourself and your children makes the mere prospect of leaving seem impossible Most importantly we hear from women who have found the courage to walk away and find a new life where violence and dominance play no part It is a testament to the bravery and resourcefulness of women who have suffered unimaginable humiliation and cruelty at the hands of a man they thought would love them It is full of hope from the foreword by Jenni Murray Rebuilding Lives after Domestic Violence examines in depth the long term outcomes for women who have suffered domestic violence and abuse based on interviews conducted over seven years Through these interviews the author reveals the factors that help or hinder a successful transition from abusive relationship to independent living The women interviewed provide an insight into the lengthy and difficult process of rebuilding their lives and offer messages and advice to those working with women who have endured similar experiences The author examines issues the women commonly face such as finding safe and independent accommodation building practical and emotional support systems and relationships and issues surrounding their children She also discusses service provision and draws together the factors that contribute to a successful and independent life This unique book is essential reading for all those involved in working with women who have experienced domestic violence and abuse as well as those responsible for service provision and policy development

Steward, 2015-06-14 Throwing caution to the wind at a dangerous time, John Steward gathered a handful of Rwandans and together they dreamed of ways to heal the wounds of genocide and war. The vibrancy of this group drew others into a radical circle for change, which silently spread outwards. John made 19 return visits to Rwanda to support and mentor these local warriors for peace. Now he reveals an inspiring story of some of the dozens of people who are being transformed from haters to healers, from bringers of violence to makers of peace. The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues

Worldwide Irving Epstein, 2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China, from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua, from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India, this jam-packed six-volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world's children at the dawn of the 21st century. In recent years, while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions, others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future. Recent concern over the world's children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood. New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology. The UN's codification of children's rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth. Organized by region, The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude, offering extensive up-to-date coverage of these critical issues. Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics, including education, play, and recreation, child labor, family health, laws and legal status, religious life, abuse and neglect, and growing up in the 21st century. Rebuilding Lives Post-Disaster Julie L. Drolet, 2019-04-26 Rebuilding Lives Post

Disaster brings together an international team of social work researchers to provide a comprehensive perspective on the realities of disaster recovery and explore key concepts such as resilience, community-based disaster risk reduction, and social and gendered construction of vulnerability and capabilities. Rejection: the complete guide to living with pain Adriano Leonel, 2024-12-20 Rejection: the complete guide to living with pain Rejection: Complete Guide to Dealing with Pain a more than a book, a
