Recent Past Art In Southern California From The 1990s To Now:

Recent Past John C. Welchman, 2005 This first volume presents an assessment of the vital and influential art scene in Southern California since 1990

Come as You Are Alexandra Schwartz, 2015-01-02 Come as You Are Art of the 1990s is the largest and most ambitious contemporary art exhibition ever to be mounted by the Montclair Art Museum The exhibition and book spotlight a pivotal moment in the recent history of art Chronicling the long 1990s between 1989 and 2001 from the fall of the Berlin Wall to 9 11 Come As You Are examines how the art of this period both reflected and helped shape the dramatic societal events of the era when the combined forces of new technologies and globalization gave rise to the accelerated international art world that we know today

Imaging History Bruno Vandermeulen, Danny Veys, 2011 In archaeology photography is mainly used as a technique for gathering data and evidence Within the framework of the research project in site site specific photography revisited the relationship between photography and archaeology or broader history is explored How do photographers visualize history What is the importance of place particularly the place that remains after the event took place How do photographers or artists use photography to depict the past when time has become past time These articles and portfolios explore both on practical and theoretical level how history can be captured The research project is an attempt to redefine the traditional relationship between archaeology and photography in order to produce new forms of image making more adapted to contemporary visual culture The project considers photography as a practice in which a picture is shaped and constructed by the photographer not a practice in which a picture is mechanically taken
