With hundreds of recipes and dazzling color photography throughout, Glorious French Food gives everyone who enjoys cooking access to essential French cooking traditions and techniques and helps them give free reign to the intuition and spontaneity that lie in the heart and stomach of every good cook. In this unrivaled practical guide, one of America's most widely respected cookbook authors distills his vast knowledge and experience into the 100 essential techniques that every cook needs to know. Seven hundred and fifty photographs unravel the mysteries of the method and provide practical application on the spot. Each technique is further explained in terms of how it makes the food taste. What happens, for example, if you cook the fish in butter versus oil? Why does roasting make vegetables taste so good? How do you decide whether you want to make a chicken stew or sauté? Here are answers to just about every cooking question, from the simple to the sublime: how to boil an artichoke or cook a soft-boiled egg or how to clean soft-shell crabs or even butcher and roast a whole saddle of lamb. Knowing how to execute a technique makes you efficient; knowing why you've chosen that technique makes you a master. Fish Tom Aikens, 2012-05-01 We are constantly being told about the benefits of eating fish and seafood: high in protein, low in fat, and rich in nutrients. Yet we also know that species like cod and tuna are in danger of extinction while unscrupulous trawlers are overfishing waters around the world. In this stunning new collection of fish recipes, Tom Aikens takes readers with him on a voyage of discovery. Having travelled to fish markets and spoken to fishermen worldwide, his recipes include new takes on ever-popular fish such as sea bass, scallops, and oysters, as well as ideas for lesser-known but underfished species like megrim, sole, ling, and gurnard. While urging us to ensure that we eat only sustainably sourced, line and net-caught fish, Aikens organizes the book by cooking method: frying, baking, poaching, grilling, marinating, and steaming. Each chapter has a dazzling array of mouthwatering dishes: whole bream baked in sea salt and fennel seeds, deep-fried squid with lime and Aioli, grilled sardines with thyme and garlic, scallops with pan-fried pork belly, crab salad with lemon and orange, barbecued mullet with dill Beautifully illustrated with specially commissioned photography including step by step photographs for techniques such as descaling and filleting this is a mouthwatering cookbook written by a chef who is passionate about his work It is destined to become an essential addition to any cook s kitchen
