Rediscovering Cuba A Personal Memoir:

Rediscovering Cuba Jorge Reyes, 2001 This is the riveting story of a family's trip to their native land of Cuba. In 1998 the author was informed of his grandmother's terminal illness. Curious to unravel the mystery that for many years has enshrouded Cuba, he convinced his mother and aunt to accompany him and revisit their native land, the country they had left behind forty and twenty years respectively. This book, part diary, part memoir, is based on this memorable and nostalgic trip. We are taken to Santiago de Cuba and to Boniato, a small town on the outskirts of the city rumored to have been built atop an old Indian cemetery. Along the way we meet colorful characters and eccentric family members set against a rich background of folklore, local color, and politics. We meet the author's aunt Mimi, who as a girl thought a cow was her mother, his great grandmother who died of a stroke after arguing with a flock of pigeons, and even ghosts rumored to haunt his small family house in Boniato. Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker, Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Ambivalence and the Postcolonial Subject Gera Burton, 2004. Regarded as Cuba's most mysterious poet, Juan Francisco Manzano continues to intrigue scholars across disciplines. Using a postcolonial approach, this book breaks new ground by exploring the poet's connection with the Irish civil rights champion Richard Robert Madden. Drawing on previously untapped sources, Gera C. Burton takes a fresh look at the relationship between these two extraordinary individuals to reveal facts considered critical in achieving an understanding of their association with particular resonance for postcolonial studies. What emerges, regardless of their ambivalence, is the creation of a strategic alliance forged by the two writers in opposition to the colonial powers. Scholars in the fields of Latin American postcolonial and Diasporic studies, along with specialists in Cuban and Irish studies, will welcome this significant contribution to the body of work on la gente sin historia, the people without a history. Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08. Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read-alikes with this detailed and expertly constructed guide. Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe, smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives. Going Places: A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand, helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them. It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests. The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters, categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read-alikes and related reads by shared key topics. The author has also identified award-winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit, making this work an ideal guide for readers, advisors, as well as a book general readers will enjoy browsing. The Labyrinth of Multitude and Other Reality Checks on Being Latino/x Julio Marzán, 2023-11-14.
