Rediscovering Dharavi:

Rediscovering Dharavi Kalpana Sharma, 2000-10-14 A book that challenges the conventional notion of a slum Spread over 175 hectares and swarming with one million people Dharavi is often called Asia's largest slum But Dharavi is much more than cold statistic What makes it special are the extraordinary people who live there many of whom have defied fate and an unhelpful State to prosper through a mix of backbreaking work some luck and a great deal of ingenuity It is these men and women whom journalist Kalpana Sharma brings to life through a series of spellbinding stories While recounting their tales she also traces the history of Dharavi from the days when it was one of the six great koliwadās or fishing villages to the present times when it along with other slums is home to almost half of Mumbai Among the colourful characters she presents are Haji Shamsuddin who came to Mumbai and began life as a rice smuggler but made his fortune by launching his own brand of peanut brittle the stoic Ramjibhai Patel a potter who represents six generations from Saurashtra who have lived and worked in Mumbai and doughty women like Khatija and Amina who helped check communal passions during the 1992-93 riots and continue to ensure that the rich social fabric of Dharavi is not frayed It is countless often anonymous individuals like these who have helped Dharavi grow from a mere swamp to a virtual gold mine with its many industrial units churning out quality leather goods garments and food products Written with rare sensitivity and empathy Rediscovering Dharavi is a riveting account of the triumph of the human spirit over poverty and want The Oxford Handbook of the Modern Slum

Each year approximately a million tourists visit slum areas on guided tours as a part of their holiday to Asia Africa or Latin America This book analyses the cultural encounters that take place between slum tourists and former street children who work as tour guides for a local NGO in Delhi India Slum tours are typically framed as both tourist performances bought as commodities for a price on the market and as appeals for aid that tourists encounter within an altruistic discourse of charity This book enriches the tourism debate by interpreting tourist performances as affective economies identifying tour guides as emotional labourers and raising questions on the long term impacts of economically unbalanced encounters with representatives of the Global North including the researcher This book studies the feeling rules governing a slum tour and how they shape interactions When do guides permit tourists to exoticise the slum and feel a thrilling sense of disgust towards the effects of abject poverty and when do they instead guide them towards a sense of solidarity with the slum s inhabitants What happens if the tourists rebel and transgress the boundaries delimiting the space of comfortable affective negotiation constituted by the guides This book will be essential reading for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working within the fields of Human Geography Slum Tourism Research Subaltern Studies and Development Studies
