Redwood Curtain A Play:

Redwood Curtain Lanford Wilson, 1995 THE STORY Geri a seventeen year old Vietnamese American has taken time out from a rigorous touring schedule as a piano prodigy to stay on her Aunt Geneva's Redwood plantation in Northern California. She's been coming here for years but recently

Redwood Curtain Lanford Wilson, 1993-02-01 In Lanford Wilson's moving and powerful play an adolescent Eurasian girl the child of a union between an American GI and a Vietnamese woman adopted by a wealthy California couple and obsessive in her search for her father is drawn to the redwood forests of northern California where thousands of Vietnam veterans have taken refuge to escape the harsh realities of life in America New York Magazine, 1993-04-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1995-04-24 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Playing to the Camera Bert Cardullo, 1998-01-01 Offers articles and interviews with movie actors from the silents to the present that discuss the art of film acting including the difference between stage and screen and British Soviet and Western European as well as American techniques Modern American Drama, 1945-2000 C. W. E. Bigsby, 2000-12-21 In this new edition of the widely acclaimed Modern American Drama Christopher Bigsby completes his survey of postwar and contemporary theatre and brings the reader up to 2000 While retaining the key elements of the first edition including surveys of those major figures who have shaped postwar American drama such as Eugene O'Neill Tennessee Williams Arthur Miller Edward Albee David Mamet and Sam Shepard Bigsby also explores the most recent works and performances these include plays by established dramatists such as Miller's The Ride down Mount Morgan and Albee's Three Tall Women as well as works by relatively new playwrights Paula Vogel Tony Kushner and Terrence McNally among others Bigsby also provides a new chapter Beyond Broadway and offers an analysis of how theatre has formed and influenced the millennial culture of America Mad about Theatre Richard Hornby, 1996 Applause Books Mad About Theatre is a systematic analysis of the major issues confronting our theatre today The Decline of Broadway The Generally Poor Quality of American Stage Acting The Pretentiousness of our Avant Garde The Narrowness of our Playwriting Broadway In Search of a Musical Fix Subsidized British Theatre in the Age of Thatcher and Beyond The Inflated Directing of the Classics The Growing Vitality of our Regional Theatres in Playwriting as well as Acting and Directing The Innovative Use of the Theatre by Minority

Groups Mad About Theatre is not only a major contribution to contemporary theatre criticism but a call to account for a culture in danger of losing its way Taken together these reviews from The Hudson Review weave a powerful indictment against the status quo while offering a constructive blueprint for the future , The Best American Short Plays 1996-1997 Glenn Young,2000-05 A collection of one act plays from American playwrights which cover such themes as love fantasy politics grief marriage crime and deceit Enser's Filmed Books and Plays Ellen Baskin,2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2003 The sixth edition of this compendium of film and television adaptations of books and plays includes several thousand new listings that cover the period from 1992 to December 2001 There are 8000 main entries covering 70 years of film history including some foreign language material The Applause/Best Plays Theater Yearbook 1991-1992 Otis L. Guernsey,Jeffrey Sweet,2000-05-01 Applause Books The Applause Best Plays Yearbook was started by Burns Mantle in 1919 and has appeared every year since then becoming the standard reference book for American Theater This volume features synopses and excerpts for the ten best plays of the 1991 1992 season including Conversations With My Father Crazy for You Dancing at Lughnasa The Extra Man Fires in the Mirror Lips Together Teeth Apart Mad Forest Marvin's Room Sight Unseen Two Trains Running This value packed volume also includes Al Hirschfeld's complete gallery of the theater season as well as essays and statistics about the season around the United States the Off Off Broadway season the various awards and more Also includes lots of photos from the productions American Theatre Thomas S. Hirschak,2001-02-22 Volume Four of the distinguished American Theatre A Chronicle of Comedy and Drama series offers a thorough candid and fascinating look at the theater in New York during the last decades of the twentieth century Scriptwork David Kahn,Donna Breed,1995 Despite the popular myth that plays arrive at the theater fully formed and ready for production the truth is that for centuries most scripts have been developed through a collaborative process in rehearsal and in concert with other theater artists David Kahn and Donna Breed provide the first codified approach to this time honored method of play development with a flexible methodology that takes into account differing environments and various stages of formation Directors can use this unique guidebook for new play development from the beginning to the end of the process Kahn and Breed explore ways of choosing new projects talk about where to find new scripts and explore the legal aspects of script development They present a detailed system for theatrical analysis of the new script and show how to continue exploration and development of the script within the laboratory of the theater Most importantly they delineate the parameters of the relationship between the director and the playwright offering proven methods to help the playwright and help facilitate the healthy development of the script Breed and Kahn offer suggestions on casting incorporating rewrites and script handling plus how and when to use audience response and how to decide what step to take next They also include extended interviews with developmental directors dramaturgs and playwrights who give credence to the new script development process In short Kahn and Breed demystify a common though often convoluted theater process providing a unique codification of ways to work on new plays
