Terrell, 2011-11-29 Are you doing all you can to improve teaching and learning Culturally proficient instruction is the result of an inside out journey during which you explore your values and behaviors while evaluating practices of your workplace In the newest version of their best selling book the authors invite you to reflect on how you engage with your students and your colleagues as a community of learners The third edition includes An updated discussion of standards based education guidelines A conceptual framework for the tools of cultural proficiency New language for understanding the microaggressions of dominant cultures An integrated guide for use with study groups      Reflective Teaching in Second Language Classrooms Jack C. Richards, Charles Lockhart, 1994-03-25 This text introduces teachers to techniques for exploring their own classroom experiences The paperback edition introduces teachers to techniques for exploring their own classroom experiences Numerous books deal with classroom observation and research but this is the first to offer a carefully structured approach to self observation and self evaluation Richards and Lockhart aim to develop a reflective approach to teaching one in which teachers collect data about their own teaching examine their attitudes beliefs and assumptions and use the information they obtain as a basis for critical reflection on teaching practices The approach is not linked to a particular method but rather can be applied to a variety of methodologies and teaching situations Each chapter includes questions and activities appropriate for group discussion or self study

New Perspectives on the Development of Communicative and Related Competence in Foreign Language Education Izumi Walker, Daniel Kwang Guan Chan, Masanori Nagami, Claire Bourguignon, 2018-08-21 Nearly half a century has passed since Hymes proposed the concept of communicative competence to describe the knowledge and skills required for the appropriate use of language in a social context During these decades a number of scholars have applied and refined this concept In language education communicative competence has been identified as a major objective of learning This book will inform readers about communicative competence as a highly complex construct encompassing an array of sub competencies such as linguistic skills and proficiencies knowledge of socio cultural and socio pragmatic codes and the ability to engage in textual and conversational discourse Findings from research in related disciplines have pointed to the significance of factors that can contribute to the attainment of communicative competence Various teaching practices and relevant Information and Communication Technology ICT tools will be also introduced and discussed to achieve communicative competence as a complex ability It is a timely contribution to current research on key areas in the teaching learning and acquisition of second foreign languages

Asia Literacy in a Global World Hannah Soong, Nayia Cominos, 2018-08-20 This book is particularly timely in light of continuing international efforts to integrate Asia literacy into a national educational system where understanding of Asia its languages cultures histories and beliefs is still at an emergent stage for a nation that is evolving into what George Megalogenis refers as an Eurasian society 2015 The contributors to this collection range from the pioneers who created and developed the Asia literacy research space to those who bring additional new theoretical insights through disciplines such as linguistics and ethnography Their analysis has resulted in recommendations to develop a deeper understanding of working and living in diverse communities The book also brings together theoretical perspectives on the current Australian socio cultural and political context and how that can impact on pedagogical advancement in Asia literacy The book argues for a broadening focus on what the outcomes Asia literacy in a global world can be for all Australians and offers counter narratives to the myth of a homogenous White Australian culture to provide new ways of engaging with curriculum and pedagogy that transcend superficial awareness of multiculturalism to embrace realistic and reflective principles of global education

Current Perspectives on the TESOL Practicum Andrzej Cirocki, Irshat Madyarov, Laura Baecher, 2020-01-30 This volume presents the current state of the TESOL Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages practicum in 13 countries including Armenia Australia Chile Costa Rica Croatia England Indonesia Japan Malta Poland South Korea Sweden and the USA Together the contributions offer a unique and contemporary view of how teachers are being educated and brought into the TESOL worldwide community of practice This is the first publication to present diverse models frameworks of the TESOL practicum from several international teaching contexts focusing on exemplary practicum cases in the selected countries
