

What you see in other people is a reflection of yourself. A person of goodness sees goodness in others and a person of evil sees evil in others.

Reflection Of The Other Person:

Other-person-ness and the Person with Profound Disabilities Pia Matthews, 2022-10-13 Many people think that profound disability presents us with a real problem often because it seems difficult to connect with someone who does not seem to think or act like us Positioning profound disability in this way immediately sets up a them and us where the person with profound disability becomes the problematic other Attempts to bridge the them and us risk reducing everyone to the same where disability is not taken seriously In contrast to a them and us and negative connotations of the other found in the existentialist philosophies of writers like Sartre and Beauvoir Pia Matthews argues for a return to a positive view of the other One positive approach to the other based on an ethics of relationship as championed by Levinas seems to mitigate the otherness of profound disability However this still makes the person with profound disability dependent on the ethical concern of the more powerful other Instead this book argues for return to a personalist philosophy of being offered by Mounier Marcel and Wojtya and deepened by participation belonging and the possibility of contributing to the good of all This deepened philosophy of being gives a more solid foundation for people who are especially at the mercy of others It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies philosophy and anthropology

Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09 This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behaviour that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele's meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognised yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves
