Danelle:

Learning about the change in history for the deaf community was very interesting to me because I never knew how mistreated the deaf were back in time. The fact that people didn't want to give deaf people the same rights as they had is upsetting to me because people can't help the way that they're born. I think it was not only brave for Gallaudet to start a school for the deaf in America, but also very considerate of him. It was a bold move because he could have received very negative feedback from society since many people believed that the deaf didn't deserve to be educated. It was considerate of him because now deaf people throughout all of America have the same rights and freedom as everyone else. It has definitely helped create more of a "perfect society" that Americans in 1820 were hoping to achieve. I enjoyed learning about the motives Gallaudet had in making this huge step to change the way humankind lives and communicates. After learning about the effect sign language has on the world, it makes me want to learn this language myself.

Innovations in Deaf Studies Annelies Kusters, Maartje De Meulder, Dai O'Brien, 2017 Innovation in Deaf Studies explores deaf scholars' research practice in Deaf Studies and highlights innovations in the field by foregrounding deaf ontologies and how they inform researchers' theoretical frameworks, positionalities, and methodologies. Understanding Deaf Culture Paddy Ladd, 2003-02-18 This book presents a Traveller's Guide to Deaf Culture starting from the premise that Deaf cultures have an important contribution to make to other academic disciplines and human lives in general. Within and outside Deaf communities, there is a need for an account of the new concept of Deaf culture which enables readers to assess its place alongside work on other minority cultures and multilingual discourses. The book aims to assess the concepts of culture on their own terms and in their many guises and to apply these to Deaf communities. The author illustrates the pitfalls which have been created for those communities by the medical concept of deafness and contrasts this with his new concept of Deafhood, a process by which every Deaf child, family, and adult implicitly explains their existence in the world to themselves and each other. Not Without Us: Perspectives on Disability and Inclusion in Singapore Kuansong Victor Zhuang, Meng Ee Wong, Dan Goodley, 2023-01-01 Disability is all around us among people we meet, the media, sports, our own family, and friends.
