Solomon, 2015-05-12 Traditional counter terrorism approaches with their emphasis on the military are failing This is seen in the fact that there is an average of three terrorist attacks per day in Africa This study calls for more holistic solutions with an emphasis on development and better governance to curb the scourge of terrorism Countering Global Terrorism and Insurgency N. Underhill, 2014-11-16 Explores current debates around religious extremism as a means to understand and re think the connections between terrorism insurgency and state failure Using case studies of Pakistan Afghanistan and Iraq she develops a better understanding of the underlying causes and conditions necessary for terrorism and insurgency to occur Pursuing Strategy H. Edström, D. Gyllensporre, 2012-02-10 Formulating a strategy involves complex interactions between politicians strategic commanders and generals in the field The authors explore the strategic decisions made during NATO missions in Bosnia Herzegovina Kosovo Macedonia Afghanistan Somalia and Libya Image Warfare in the War on Terror N. Roger, 2013-01-11 Roger examines how developments in new media technologies such as the internet blogs camera video phones have fundamentally altered the way in which governments militaries terrorists NGOs and citizens engage with images He argues that there has been a paradigm shift from techno war to image warfare which emerged on 9 11 Security Sector Reconstruction and Reform in Peace Support Operations Michael Brzoska, Law David, 2006-12-07 This volume provides a framework for analyzing security sector reform under international tutelage Following violent conflict and military interventions international organizations or coalitions of countries increasingly engage in post conflict reconstruction Part of the international post conflict agenda is thereconstruction orreform of th Regional Insecurity After the Arab Uprisings E. Monier, 2015-06-11 This book presents an in depth exploration of the impact of the Arab Uprisings on the relationship between constructions of in security narratives of threat and patterns of socio political change within the Middle East and North Africa region It also offers insights into the study of regional security and the operation of threat perceptions Security Sector Reform in Conflict-Affected Countries Mark Sedra, 2016-11-03 This book examines the evolution impact and future prospects of the Security Sector Reform SSR model in conflict affected countries in the context of the wider debate over the liberal peace project Since its emergence as a concept in the late 1990s SSR has represented a paradigm shift in security assistance from the realist regime centric train and equip approach of the Cold War to a new liberal holistic and people centred model The rapid rise of this model however belied its rather meagre impact on the ground This book critically examines the concept and its record of achievement over the past two decades putting it into the broader context of peace building and state building theory and practice It focuses attention on the most common celebrated and complex setting for SSR conflict affected environments and comparatively examines the application and impacts of donor supported SSR programing in a series of conflict affected countries over the past two decades including Afghanistan Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of Congo East Timor and Bosnia Herzegovina The broader aim of the book is to better understand how the contemporary SSR model has coalesced over the past two decades and become mainstreamed in international development and security policy and practice This provides a solid foundation to investigate the reasons for the poor performance of the model and to assess its prospects for the future This book will be of much interest to students of international security peacebuilding statebuilding development studies and IR in general
