Reformasi The Struggle For Power In Postsoeharto Indonesia:

Reformasi Kevin O'Rourke, 2002 A gripping account of Indonesia's political and economic struggles from the final days of Soeharto's rule through the first two years of Wahid's presidency Kevin O'Rourke's accessible and compelling style conveys the drama of recent events along with an in-depth understanding of the whole region Democratization in Post-Suharto Indonesia Marco Bunte, Andreas Ufen, 2008-08-21 This book gives an overview of the difficult and multilayered process of democratization in Indonesia since the fall of its long term autocratic ruler Suharto Regionalism in Post-Suharto Indonesia Maribeth Erb, Carol Faucher, Priyambudi Sulistiyanto, 2013-01-11 This book examines issues connected with decentralization and regional autonomy in Indonesia including particular autonomy movements the attempts by forces at the centre to resist decentralization and the impact of decentralization Political Reform in Indonesia After Soeharto Harold A. Crouch, 2010 Three decades of authoritarian rule in Indonesia came to a sudden end in 1998 The collapse of the Soeharto regime was accompanied by massive economic decline widespread rioting communal conflict and fears that the nation was approaching the brink of disintegration Although the fall of Soeharto opened the way towards democratization conditions were by no means propitious for political reform This book asks how political reform could proceed despite such unpromising circumstances It examines electoral and constitutional reform the decentralization of a highly centralized regime the gradual but incomplete withdrawal of the military from its deep political involvement the launching of an anti corruption campaign and the achievement of peace in two provinces that had been devastated by communal violence and regional rebellion in Indonesia During the authoritarian New Order regime they constituted part of a vast network of sub contracted coercion and social control on behalf of the state Indonesia s subsequent democratisation has seen gangs adapt to and take advantage of the changed political context New types of populist street based organisations have emerged that combine predatory rent seeking with claims of representing marginalised social and economic groups Based on extensive fieldwork in Jakarta this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the changing relationship between gangs militias and political power and authority in post New Order Indonesia It argues that gangs and militias have manufactured various types of legitimacy in consolidating localised territorial monopolies and protection economies As mediators between the informal politics of the street and the world of formal politics they have become often influential brokers in Indonesia s decentralised electoral democracy More than mere criminal extortion it is argued that the protection racket as a social relation of coercion and domination remains a salient feature of Indonesia s post authoritarian political landscape This ground breaking study will be of interest to students and scholars of Indonesian and Southeast Asian politics political violence gangs and urban politics

The Politics of Military Reform in Post-Suharto Indonesia Marcus Mietzner, 2006 This study discusses the process of military reform in Indonesia after the fall of Suharto s New Order regime in 1998 The extent of Indonesia s progress in this area has been the subject of heated debate both in Indonesia and in Western capitals Human rights organizations and critical academics on the one hand have argued that the reforms implemented so far have been largely superficial and that Indonesia s armed forces remain a highly problematic institution Foreign proponents of military assistance to Indonesia on the other hand have asserted that the military has undergone radical change as evidenced by its complete extraction from political institutions This study evaluates the state of military reform eight years after the end of authoritarian rule pointing to both significant achievements and serious shortcomings Although the armed forces in the new democratic polity no longer function as the backbone of a powerful centralist regime and have lost many of their previous privileges the military has been able to protect its core institutional interests by successfully fending off demands to reform the territorial command structure As the military s primary source of political influence and off budget revenue the persistence of the territorial system has ensured that the Indonesian armed forces have not been fully subordinated to democratic civilian control This ambiguous transition outcome so far poses difficult challenges to domestic and foreign policymakers who have to find ways of effectively engaging with the military to drive the reform process forward This is the twenty third publication in Policy Studies a peer reviewed East West Center Washington series that presents scholarly analysis of key contemporary domestic and international political economic and strategic issues affecting Asia in a policy relevant manner

Political Islam and Violence in Indonesia Zachary Abuza,2006-09-25 Political Islam and Violence in Indonesia presents a penetrating new investigation of religious radicalism in the largest Muslim country in the world Indonesia is a country long known for its diversity and tolerant brand of Islam However since the fall of Suharto a more intolerant form of Islam has been growing one whose adherents have carried out terrorist attacks waged sectarian war and voiced strident anti Western rhetoric Zachary Abuza s unique analysis of radical Islam draws upon primary documents such as Jemaah Islamiyah s operations manual interviews and recorded testimonies of politicians religious figures and known militants as well as personal interviews with numerous security and intelligence experts in Indonesia and elsewhere to paint a picture at once guardedly optimistic about the future of Indonesian democracy and concerned about the increasing role of conservative and radical Islam in Indonesian society This book will be of great interest to students of Indonesian politics Asian studies political violence and security studies in general

The Politics of Military Reform Jürgen Rüländ, Maria-Gabriela Manea, Hans Born, 2012-09-03 This volume seeks to explain why democratization and military reforms stagnate in newly democratizing countries The contributions blend historical ideational cultural and structural explanatory factors to analyze the trajectories of military reform in Indonesia and Nigeria two major regional powers that share many structural commonalities In the tradition of the literature on security sector reform SSR the book not only scrutinizes executive initiatives toward military reform but also provides ample coverage of societal actors Findings show that while military reform is stagnating in both countries societal forces ought to be taken into account more as major driving forces in explaining military reform Several chapters study how legislatures non governmental organizations and the civilian defence epistemic community contribute to the transformation of military institutions The last part of the book tackles another aspect rarely studied in the literature on military reform namely the role of militias in military reform

Soeharto's New Order and Its Legacy Edward Aspinall, Greg Fealy, 2010-08-01 Indonesia's President Soeharto led one of the most durable and effective authoritarian regimes of the second half of the twentieth century Yet his rule ended in ignominy and much of the turbulence and corruption of the subsequent years was blamed on his legacy More than a decade after Soeharto's resignation Indonesia is a consolidating democracy and the time has come to reconsider the place of his regime in modern Indonesian history and its lasting impact This book begins this task by bringing together a collection of leading experts on Indonesia to examine Soeharto and his legacy from diverse perspectives In presenting their analyses these authors pay tribute to Harold Crouch an Australian political scientist who remains one of the greatest chroniclers of the Soeharto regime and its aftermath

The Indonesian Way Jürgen Rüländ, 2017-12-12 On December 31 2015 the ten member Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN ushered in a new era with the founding of the ASEAN Community AC The culmination of 12 years of intensive preparation the AC was both a historic initiative and an unprecedented step toward the area's regional integration Political commentators and media outlets however greeted its establishment with little fanfare Implicitly and explicitly they suggested that the AC was only the beginning Southeast Asia they seemed to say was taking its first steps on a linear process of unification that would converge on the model of the European Union In The Indonesian Way Jürgen Rüländ challenges this previously unquestioned diffusion of European norms Focusing on the reception of ASEAN in Indonesia R land traces how foreign policy stakeholders in government civil society the legislature academe the press and the business sector have responded to calls for ASEAN s Europeanization ultimately fusing them with their own distinctly Indonesian form of regionalism His analysis reframes the nature of ASEAN as well as the discipline of international relations more broadly writing a narrative of regional integration and norm diffusion that breaks free of Eurocentric thought Propaganda and the Genocide in Indonesia Saskia Wieringa,Nursyahbani Katjasungkana,2018-10-26 In Indonesia the events of 1st October 1965 were followed by a campaign to annihilate the Communist Party and its alleged sympathisers It resulted in the murder of an estimate of one million people a genocide that counts as one of the largest mass murders after WWII and the incarceration of another million many of them for a decade or more without any legal process This drive was justified and enabled by a propaganda campaign in which communists were painted as atheist hypersexual amoral and intent to destroy the nation To date the effects of this campaign are still felt and the victims are denied the right of association and freedom of speech This book presents the history of the genocide and propaganda campaign and the process towards the International People s Tribunal on 1965 crimes against humanity in Indonesia IPT 1965 which was held in November 2015 in The Hague The Netherlands The authors an Indonesian Human Rights lawyer and a Dutch academic examine this unique event which for the first time brings these crimes before an international court and its verdict They single out the campaign of hate propaganda as it provided the incitement to kill so many Indonesians and why this propaganda campaign is effective to this day The first book on this topic it fills a significant gap in Asian Studies and Genocide Studies Peaceful Islamist Mobilization in the Muslim World Julie Chernov Hwang,2009-09-28 In Peaceful Islamist Mobilization in the Muslim World What Went Right Julie Chernov Hwang presents a compelling and innovative new theory and framework for examining the variation in Islamist mobilization strategies in Muslim Asia and the Middle East Java, Indonesia and Islam Mark Woodward,2010-10-28 Mark R Woodward s Islam in Java Normative Piety and Mysticism in the Sultanate of Yogyakarta 1989 was one of the most important work on Indonesian Islam of the era This new volume Java Indonesia and Islam builds on the earlier study but also goes beyond it in important ways Written on the basis of Woodward s thirty years of research on Javanese Islam in a Yogyakarta south central Java setting the book presents a much needed collection of essays concerning Javanese Islamic texts ritual sacred space situated in Javanese and Indonesian political contexts With a number of entirely new essays as well as significantly revised versions of essays this book is a valuable contribution to the academic community by an eminent anthropologist and key authority on Islamic religion and culture in Java Proceedings of the Southeast Asian Conference on Migration and Development (SeaCMD 2023) Pamungkas A.
