The International Financial Architecture Peter B. Kenen, 2001 Kenen economics and international finance Princeton University reviews the reform efforts that followed the 1994 95 Mexican crisis and evaluates their results in the time since then He compares the existing efforts with the more radical recommendations of the Meltzer Report and considers the implications of his analysis for the role of the IMF He then offers his own recommendations for further reform c Book News Inc

The New Architecture of the International Monetary System Paolo Savona, 2013-03-09 Two years ago the Guido Carli Association in collaboration with the Aspen Institute Italia charged a group of distinguished economists to examine the problems created by the unsatisfactory functioning of the International Monetary System The two resulting conferences were sponsored by the Fondazione della Cassa di Risparmio di Firenze CESIFIN and the Permanent Advisory Committee on the Euro and the Dollar PACE D Their research had a two fold aim The first was an examination of the basic function of the International Monetary System with a special focus on the role the Euro would and should have The second was the preparation of a list of recommendations on how to resolve the problems financial problems in particular affecting the entire world community Last year the group focused on efforts taking place in diverse financial institutions and universities to construct what has been called the New International Financial Architecture This group considered the legal problems arising from European and international integration and more generally from the new architecture of the International Monetary System This book The New Architecture of the International Monetary System is the final result of their efforts It will be an invaluable resource for academics professionals and students alike

Governing Risk M. Moschella, 2010-04-09 With the effects of the latest financial crisis still unfolding this is a timely guide to the politics of international financial reform comparing the policies that the international community requested the IMF to follow in the aftermath of the Mexican Asian and subprime crisis

Higher Education System Reform, 2019-04-04 The Bologna Declaration started the development of the European Higher Education Area The ensuing Bologna Process has run for already 20 years now In the meantime many higher education systems in Europe have been reformed some more drastically than others some quicker than others some with more resistance than others In the process of reform the initial six goals have sometimes been forgotten or sometimes been taken a step further The context too has shifted while the European Union in itself has expanded the voice for exit has also been heard more frequently Higher Education System Reform An international comparison after Twenty Years of Bologna critically describes and analyses 12 Higher Education Systems from the perspective of four major questions What is currently the situation with regard to the six original goals of Bologna What was the adopted path of reform Which were the triggering economic social political factors for the reform in each specific country What was the rationale discourse used during the reform The book comparatively analyses the different systems their paths of reforms and trajectories and the similarities and the differences between them At the same time it critically assesses the
