Reframing Of Realism:

The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Galdós's methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist's art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Galdós's novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Galdós's work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Galdós's fiction confirms the author's own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity
