Refugee Problems In Africa:

Refugee Problems in Africa Sven Hamrell, 1967 Collection of conference papers on refugee problems in Africa South of Sahara covers rural area community development land settlement schemes the role of ILO intergroup relations the importance of the time factor for mass resettlement schemes vocational training and educational needs the role of volunteer organisations the role of the UN etc Conference held in uppsala 1966 April 26 to 28 Refugee problems in Africa Sven Hamrell, 1967 Reflections on the African Refugee Problem Gaim Kibreab, 1983 Research report analysing certain assumptions concerning the African refugee problem discusses the theoretical and historical background trends and causes geographic distribution 1966 1981 tribal peoples conflicts resulting from the arbitrary creation of frontiers under colonialism hospitality or exploitation role of UN UNHCR etc argues that refugees can under appropriate planning economic aid and technical cooperation stimulate economic development in the immigration country References African Refugee Problems United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1965 African Refugee Problems United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees, 1965 The Problems of Refugees in Africa Ebenezer Q . Blavo, 2019-07-23 First published in 1999 this volume is an attempt to make the facts of the tremendous physical social and psychological problems for the uprooted due to the numerous conflicts known to all and to stress the need for a concerted effort by all to achieve lasting peace on the continent Ebenezer Q Blavo had substantial opportunity to observe first hand and be in close contact with refugees of almost all African nationalities He explores concepts and experiences of being refugees as well as current and potential refugee policies for African countries This book forms part of a series on voices in development management in which grass roots organisations and development practitioners can voice their views and present their perspectives along with the conventional development experts Many of the volumes in the series will contain explicit debates between the various voices in development and permit the suite of neglected development issues such as gender and transport or the microcredit needs of low income communities to receive appropriate public and professional attention World Hunger, Health, and Refugee Problems United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees, 1975 World Hunger, Health, and Refugee Problems: Special study mission to Africa, Asia & Middle East United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees, 1973 Refugees and Forced Migrants in Africa and the EU Elisabeth Wacker, Ulrich Becker, Katharina Crepaz, 2018-12-28 The so called refugee crisis represents one of the biggest contemporary political and social challenges Although many African countries have been dealing with forced migratory and refugee movements for decades their experiences have so far largely been neglected in the predominantly Eurocentric public debate The present volume aims to bridge this gap by providing comparative African and European perspectives from different disciplines highlighting the challenges but also potential mutual benefits of social diversification and offering an insight into possible solution strategies

The Challenges of Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa Sabella O. Abidde, 2020-12-05 This book discusses the phenomena of refugees and internally displaced persons IDP across several African countries There are 40 million IDP worldwide of these an estimated 12.6 million are in 37 of Africa's 55 countries Written by a team of fifteen scholars across four continents this book uses both quantitative and qualitative data to analyze the causes and consequences of this displacement the role of the state in creating and mitigating these situations and potential policy solutions The volume is divided into three sections Chapters in Section 1 discuss the causes of displacement Chapters in Section 2 discuss refugees in their regional context Chapters in Section 3 discuss IDP camps in Kenya Nigeria and Ghana Bringing scholarly analysis to address two humanitarian crises this book will be useful to students and researchers interested in African politics forced migration and policy as well as members of the diplomatic corps governmental and non governmental organizations actively working towards solving these challenges

African Refugees Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Jacob-Haliso, 2023-01-03 African Refugees is a comprehensive overview of the context causes and consequences of refugee lives discussing issues policies and solutions for African refugees around the world It covers overarching topics such as human rights policy frameworks refugee protection and durable solutions as well as less studied topics such as refugee youths refugee camps LGBTQ refugees urban refugees and refugee women It also takes on rare but emergent topics such as citizenship and the creativity of African refugees Toyin Falola and Olajumoke Jacob Haliso showcase the voices and experiences of individual refugees through the sweep of history to tell the African refugee story from the historical past through current developments covering the full range of experience from the causes of flight to living in exile all while maintaining a persistent focus on the complicated search for solutions African Refugees recognizes African agency and contributions in pursuit of solutions for African refugees over time but avoids the pitfalls of the colonial gaze where refugees are perpetually pathologized and Africa is always the sole cause of its own problems seeking to complicate these narratives by recognizing African refugee issues within exploitative global colonial and neo colonial systems of power

African Migrants and the Refugee Crisis Olayiwola Abegunrin, Sabella O. Abidde, 2020-11-12 This book discusses African migration and the refugee crisis Economic political and social tension in the Middle East and in many parts of the Global South has induced historic mass migration across national and international borders The situation is especially dire in Africa where a sizable number of Africans have chosen or have been forced to leave their countries of origin for Europe and North America

Written by an international team of scholars this edited book traces the refugee crisis around the world telling the necessary story of forced migration intentional exclusion and human insecurity from an Afrocentric lens The volume is divided into three sections Section I places African migration within the broader contexts of international history law economics and policy Section II discusses cases of African migration to Europe Latin America and the Mediterranean Section III considers negative consequences of mass African migration including the restriction and criminalization of migration post traumatic stress disorder and gender based violence A compelling account of risk resilience and global power dynamics this volume will be useful to students and researchers interested in African studies migration peace and conflict studies and policy as well as professionals practitioners NGOs IGOs governmental and humanitarian organizations Briefing on the Growing Refugee Problem United States.
