Regards From A Friend:

The Family friend [ed. by R.K. Philp]. Robert Kemp Philp,1863 On Education, Formation, Citizenship and the Lost Purpose of Learning Joseph Clair,2017-11-30 Reading Augustine presents concise personal readings of St Augustine of Hippo from leading philosophers and religion scholars The looming crisis in higher education appears to be a matter of soaring costs and crushing student debt but the problem is actually much deeper It is a crisis of soul a question of the very purpose of learning and the type of people that our educational system produces Today in the age of academic hyper specialization and professional knowledge the moral and spiritual purposes of learning have been eclipsed by a shallow view of career and success On Education Formation Citizenship and the Lost Purpose of Learning turns to the influential figure Augustine of Hippo to explore how he saved the liberal arts at the end of the Roman Empire and how his inspiring vision can do the same for higher education today It offers a roadmap for reviving the soul of education presenting concrete ways that the intellectual practices and economic enterprise of learning can lead once more to a fulfilled life of knowing God and loving others *The Wreath of Friendship; a Token of Regard ... Stribling: an Intense Friendship Alice Davis Wood, 2008-10-21 This is primarily the story of the long time friendship between Dorothea Dix and Dr Stribling as told by them in their unedited letters The letters are preceded by summaries of their life experiences at the time their friendship began Dix was the most politically active and well traveled woman her time She enlarged or founded thirty two mental hospitals in fifteen states and other countries fifteen schools for the feeble minded a school for the blind and several training schools for nurses Dix successfully petitioned Congress to create the Government Hospital for the Insane in Washington D C Dix petitioned Congress in 1854 to sell twelve million acres of public land whose proceeds would befit the insane blind and paupers throughout the nation After it was passed by Congress but then vetoed by Congress a devastated Dix too ill to work traveled to England to recuperate By the late 60s Western State and similar institutions were filled with incurable patients leaving little room for those who could be cured By 1871 only eight of Striblings patients were expected to be cured twenty six others were doubtful and the remaining three hundred and six patients were decidedly unfavorable The situation was depressing for Stribling his staff and the caretakers who constantly drew on their skills energies and goodness of heart to soothe patients depressed spirits and replace their delusions with pleasant thoughts It would have been far easier to restore curable patients who would be in the hospital only for the brief duration of their illness Stribling died in 1974 Because of his crusade to cure the insane in the South he had been one of the most influential Virginians of his time Dix continued her crusade until the Civil war when she became head of the Union nurses Afterwards she resumed her efforts to help those who could not help themselves Dix died on July 17 1887 at the New Jersey State Hospital at Trenton
