Pat Barker and the Mediation of Social Reality David F. Waterman, 2009 Pat Barker is one of the most compelling of the current generation of British novelists especially in her use of the novel as an instrument of social critique fashioning a literature which does not shy away from asking thorny questions refusing the doctrinaire of what goes without saying suspicious of simple answers In this critical study David Waterman examines questions of social representation in all of Pat Barker's novels published over the last twenty five years from Union Street 1982 to the recent Life Class 2007 especially the ways in which Barker encourages us to interrogate the reality created by such conventionalizing prescriptive representations in favor of a reality more accurately represented through a critical assessment of the uses and abuses of collective representations Book Jacket

The Gothic in Contemporary British Trauma Fiction Ashlee Joyce, 2019-09-05 This book examines the intersection of trauma and the Gothic in six contemporary British novels Martin Amis s London Fields Margaret Drabble s The Gates of Ivory Ian McEwan s Atonement Pat Barker s Regeneration and Double Vision and Kazuo Ishiguro s Never Let Me Go In these works the Gothic functions both as an expression of societal violence at the turn of the twenty first century and as a response to the related crisis of representation brought about by the contemporary individual s highly mediated and spectatorial relationship to this violence By locating these six novels within the Gothic tradition this work argues that each text to borrow a term from Jacques Derrida participates in the Gothic in ways that both uphold the paradigm of unspeakability that has come to dominate much trauma fiction as well as push its boundaries to complicate how we think of the ethical relationship between witnessing and writing trauma
