Robert Benedetto, Donald K. McKim

Religion In New Zealand Society:

The New Zealand Jewish Community Stephen I. Levine,1999-01-01 In this unique study Stephen Levine examines the particular characteristics of New Zealand Jewry one of the most exotic Jewish communities in the world Because it is so far from the rest of world Jewry this community must continually face the challenge of Jewish continuity Levine draws attention to the diversity in Jewish identity among New Zealand s Jews as well as to the institutionalization of new relationships between the Jewish community and Israel Ultimately however Levine stresses the community s interaction with world Jewry despite the many challenges facing such a small and remote population The New Zealand Jewish Community will be an essential volume for students of Judaism the sociology of religion contemporary history and political studies Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton,Martin Baumann,2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world s smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia s six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world s smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world s most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions Religions of New Zealanders Peter Donovan,1996 A factual across the board introduction to the many faiths and spiritual paths in Aotearoa New Zealand The New Zealand Student Christian Movement, 1896-1996 Christine Berry,1996 Religion in New Zealand Society Brian Colless,Peter Donovan,1980 Worlds Colliding Rex J. Ahdar,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Worlds Colliding argues that the prevailing worldview held by those in positions of power in Western government sets the bounds for religious tolerance It explores the degree to which a modern liberal state will allow a counter cultural community the freedom to live according to its concept of the good life Losing Our Religion? Kevin Ronald Ward,2013-10-22 Church going in most Western societies has declined significantly in the wake of the social and cultural changes that began in the 1960s Does this mean that people in these societies are losing any religious dimension in their lives or is it being expressed in other forms and places This study begins by looking at comparative data on how church going patterns have changed in five countries Britain the United States Canada Australia and New Zealand examining reasons for the decline how churches have responded to these changes and why some churches have shown greater resilience It then explores some of the particular challenges these changes pose for the future of churches in these societies and some of the responses that have been made drawing on both sociological and theological insights The conclusion is that despite the loss of belonging believing persists and religion continues to play a significant role in these societies mediated in a variety of diffuse cultural forms Cases illustrating these changes are largely drawn from New Zealand which as the country most recently settled by Europeans has always been secular and thus provides helpful insights

years this is the first collection of the writings of international figure Lloyd Geering a premier public intellectual who was once found guilty of heresy by the Presbyterian Church With never before seen material this compendium demonstrates the remarkable consistency in the thought of this increasingly influential thinker Provocative and heartfelt this compilation provides a fascinating coverage of the engagement of religion and the modern world Mixed Blessings Amanda

Whiting, Carolyn Evans, 2006-05-01 The essays in this volume explore some of the diverse and contradictory ways that the lives of women in the Asia Pacific region are shaped by two powerful regimes religion and law and by the interactions between them They show that for women laws customary colonial post independence and international and religions indigenous or introduced Buddhism Christianity Islam and Confucianism have been a mixed blessing These diverse legal systems and religious doctrines and institutions have variously denied women authority and the capacity to participate fully in the public organization of social political and religious life they have furthermore constructed gender and familial relations in ways that subordinate women Yet they have also offered promises of women s empowerment and provided rules and procedures norms values and interpretations of sacred traditions to deliver those emancipatory promises Each chapter is devoted to a single state first the history and current framework of the national legal system is introduced then the place of religion in the state is explained and finally by means of precise and detailed case studies or examples each author explores how these sometimes competing sometimes colluding regimes constructed women and how women interpreted this positioning and sought to resituate themselves Charity Law and Governance Ross Grantham, Kim D

Weinert, 2025-10-16 This book presents a critical in depth analysis of the changes taking place in the governance of charities and charity law in Australia New Zealand and England Delving into the transformative journey of charity law the book reveals its dramatic shift from traditional private law regulation governed by the courts and trust law to an advanced regulatory framework This pivot is not just a legal transition it reflects the core tension within charity itself the balancing act between private initiative and public good Featuring contributions from both renowned and up and coming international charity law scholars this book stands out for its comprehensive coverage Each chapter delves into the nuanced complex issues arising from the modernisation of charity law providing a rich insightful exploration of the concept of charity as it straddles the realms of legal theory and state regulated practice Leadership in The Salvation Army Harold

Hill, 2006-10-01 Leadership in The Salvation Army is a review and analysis of Salvation Army history focused on the process of clericalisation The Army provides a case study of the way in which renewal movements in the church institutionalise Their leadership roles initially merely functional and based on the principle of the priesthood of all believers begin to assume greater status the adoption of the term ordination for the commissioning of The Salvation Army s officers in 1978 a hundred years after its founding illustrates this tendency The Salvation Army s ecclesiology has been essentially pragmatic and has developed in comparative isolation from the wider church perhaps with a greater role being played by sociological processes than by theological reflection in its development The Army continues to exhibit a tension between its theology which supports equality of status and its military structure which works against equality and both schools of thought flourish within its ranks

Religious Confession Privilege and the Common Law A. Christchurch Muslims Abdullah Drury, 2024-09-30 This book examines a significant part of New Zealand history through a critical analysis of the Muslim community in Christchurch a neglected but important aspect of wider New Zealand social and religious history Islam is one of the fastest growing religions in New Zealand and one of the least understood by the wider public However the historic reality demonstrates that the first Muslim settlers arrived within 15 years of the proclamation of the colony in 1841 and many have been living quietly in this country and contributing to society ever since Drury elucidates how New Zealand Muslims have proved it possible to integrate into a European society in the South Pacific whilst retaining an idiosyncratic sense of Islamic communal identity This book is a useful reference for scholars and educators curious to learn more about Muslims in New Zealand and about the Christchurch Mosque communities before the 2019 shootings national bill of rights has been a controversial issue for quite some time This is despite the fact that Australia has acceded to the ICCPR as well as the First Optional Protocol to the ICCPR thereby accepting an international obligation to bring Australian law into line with the ICCPR an obligation that Australia has not discharged Australia is the only country in the Western world without a national bill of rights 4 The chapters that follow in this book debate the situation in Australia and in various other Western jurisdictions From Foreword by The Hon Sir Anthony Mason AC KBE Human Rights and Courts
