Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers,Dick Houtman,2010-07-07 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book s chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others it is argued in the introductory chapter already hinted that there s a future for such religions of modernity Contributors Stef Aupers Kelly Besecke Kirsten Marie Bovbjerg Siobhan Chandler Olav Hammer Dick Houtman Murray Lee Carly Machado Karen P rna Adam Possamai Linda Woodhead and Dorien Zandbergen Religion of the Gods Kimberley Christine Patton,2009 In many of the world s religions both polytheistic and monotheistic a seemingly enigmatic and paradoxical image is found that of the god who worships Various interpretations of this seeming paradox have been advanced Some suggest that it represents sacrifice to a higher deity Proponents of anthropomorphic projection say that the gods are just big people and that images of human religious action are simply projected onto the deities However such explanations do not do justice to the complexity and diversity of this phenomenon In Religion of the Gods Kimberley C Patton uses a comparative approach to take up anew a longstanding challenge in ancient Greek religious iconography why are the Olympian gods depicted on classical pottery making libations The sacrificing gods in ancient Greece are compared to gods who perform rituals in six other religious traditions the Vedic gods the heterodox god Zurvan of early Zoroastrianism the Old

Norse god Odin the Christian God and Christ the God of Judaism and Islam's Allah Patton examines the comparative evidence from a cultural and historical perspective uncovering deep structural resonances while also revealing crucial differences. Instead of looking for invisible recipients or lost myths Patton proposes the new category of divine reflexivity. Divinely performed ritual is a self-reflexive self-expressive action that signals the origin of ritual in the divine and not the human realm. Above all, divine ritual is generative both instigating and inspiring human religious activity. The religion practiced by the gods is both like and unlike human religious action. Seen from within the religious tradition, gods are not big people but other than human. Human ritual is directed outward to a divine being but the gods practice ritual on their own behalf. Cultic time, the symbiotic performance of ritual both in heaven and on earth, collapses the distinction between cult and theology each time ritual is performed. Offering the first comprehensive study and a new theory of this fascinating phenomenon, Religion of the Gods is a significant contribution to the fields of classics and comparative religion. Patton shows that the god who performs religious action is not an anomaly but holds a meaningful place in the category of ritual and points to a phenomenologically universal structure within religion itself. Value Education: Based On All The Religions Of The World (In Two Volumes) Sukh Lal Dhani, 2007. The book on Value Education based on all the religions of the world is an anthology. During Dr. Promilla Kapur's travels, she was approached by many eminent scholars to compile a book based on the teachings of all the religions of the world. It was a Herculean task but the efforts were worth the trouble. In the month of January 2001, she started approaching the eminent scholars and religious heads to write chapters of the book. The most eminent scholars in Hinduism, Jainism, Arya Samaj, Islam, Christianity, Zoroastrianism, Sikhism, Bhai's faith and so on were contacted. Almost hundred reminders to each were sent. At one stage, it gave the feelings that it was an impossible task but the tenacity of Dr. Promilla Kapur kept her on the track. By January of 2004, the chapters started arriving. All the religious leaders and eminent scholars gave the word of wisdom on all the religions of the world. It was heartening to read that not a single chapter writer differed from the positive image of each religion. The preaching was almost identical: Love, affection, caring, and sharing, Forgiveness, tolerance, and compassion for the entire human beings were the common theme revealed in all the papers. The book is the need of the hour and will earn its proper place in the human society all over the world. Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle, 1838. Unity, 1918. The Future of Religious Studies in India Clemens Cavallin, Åke Sander, Sudha Sitharaman, 2020-11-23. This book looks at how religious studies is framed and taught in India. It addresses the contradiction between the country's vibrant religious life and the dearth of comparative and social scientific religious studies programs across Indian universities. The volume studies the efforts by Rabindranath Tagore in Santiniketan and Mohan Malaviya in Varanasi to introduce and institutionalize religious studies in India. Discusses the notions of religion and spirituality and situates the failure of the secularization thesis in the context of modern India. Provides concrete suggestions on how to develop religious studies in relation to global citizenship and Indian cultural heritage with the hope of initiating a larger discussion A unique contribution to the study of religion in society and education the book will be indispensable to students and researchers of theology history philosophy sociology secularization globalization religious studies education studies and South Asian studies The Political Philosophy of Sri Aurobindo Vishwanath Prasad Varma,1990-01-01

History of the Reformation in the Sixteenth Century and in the Time of Calvin (Complete) Jean Henri Merle d'Aubigne,1849-01-01 Facts alone do not constitute the whole of history any more than the members of the body form the complete man There is a soul in history as well as in the body and it is this which generates vivifies and links the facts together so that they all combine to the same end The instant we begin to treat of Geneva which through the ministry of Calvin was to become the most powerful centre of Reform in the sixteenth century one question starts up before us What was the soul of the Reformation of Geneva Truly salvation by faith in Christ who died to save truly the renewal of the heart by the word and the Spirit of God But side by side with these supreme elements that are found in all the Reformations we meet with secondary elements that have existed in one country and not in another What we discover at Geneva may possibly deserve to fix the attention of men in our own days the characteristic element of the Genevese Reform is liberty Three great movements were carried out in this city during the first half of the sixteenth century The first was the conquest of independence the second the conquest of faith the third the renovation and organisation of the Church Berthelier Farel and Calvin are the three heroes of these three epics Each of these different movements was necessary The bishop of Geneva was a temporal prince like the bishop of Rome it was difficult to deprive the bishop of his pastoral staff unless he were first deprived of his sword The necessity of liberty for the Gospel and of the Gospel for liberty is now acknowledged by all thoughtful men but it was proclaimed by the history of Geneva three centuries ago But it may be said a history of the Reformation has no concern with the secular political and social element I have been reproached with not putting this sufficiently forward in the history of the Reformation of Germany where it had relatively but little importance I may perhaps be reproached with dwelling on it too much in the Reformation of Geneva where it holds a prominent place It is a hard matter to please all tastes the safest course is to be guided by the truth of principles and not by the exigencies of individuals Is it my fault if an epoch possesses its characteristic features if it is impossible to keep back the secular without wronging the spiritual element To cut history in two is to distort it In the Reform of Geneva and especially in the constitution of its church the element of liberty predominates more than in the Reforms of other countries We cannot know the reason of this unless we study the movement which gave birth to that Reform The history of the political emancipation of Geneva is interesting of itself liberty it has been said has never been common in the world it has not flourished in all countries or in all climates and the periods when a people struggles justly for liberty are the privileged epochs of history One such epoch occurred at the commencement of modern times but strange to say it is almost in Geneva alone that the struggles for liberty make the earlier decades of the sixteenth century a privileged time It is in this small republic that we find men remarkable for their devotion to liberty for their attachment to law for the boldness of their thoughts the firmness of their character and the strength of their energy In the sixteenth century after a repose of some hundreds of years humanity having recovered its powers like a field that had long lain fallow displayed almost everywhere the marvels of the most luxuriant vegetation Geneva is indeed the smallest theatre of this extraordinary fermentation but it was not the least in heroism and grandeur and on that ground alone it deserves attention Rational Religion and Morals: Presenting Analysis of the Functions of Mind, Under the Operations and Directions of Reason Thomas J. Vaiden,1852 The Religion of Man Fazlul Karim,1976 Secular Humanism: The Official Religion of the United States of America Morris Bowers,2007-07-16 The real Axis of Evil is The Religion of Humanism American Civil Liberties Union ACLU National Education Association NEA It s time to get back to some old fashioned values like commitment and sacrifice and responsibility and purity and love and the straight life Not only will our children benefit from our self discipline and perseverance but we adults will live in a less neurotic world too In the case Torcaso v Watkins in 1961 the U S Supreme Court stated Among religions in this country which do not teach what would generally be considered a belief in the existence of God are Buddhism Taoism Ethical Culture Secular Humanism and others Natural Religion and the Nature of Religion Peter Byrne,2013-05-02 This study offers students of religion and philosophy introductory chapters concerning the concept of natural religion It holds that we can t engage in useful discussion about the present concept of religion without a knowledge of the philosophical history that has shaped that concept This is discussed with reference to the notion of natural religion to illustrate certain aspects of deism and its legacy Originally published in 1989
