William Stringfellow, 1999-02-17 A Private and Public Faith is a heartfelt protest against the self serving religiosity that characterizes so much of religion in contemporary American society and which affects to such a large degree the life of the churches of American Protestantism Stringfellow's protest is motivated by a passionate concern that the authentic life of the Word of God should operate freely in the church and in the world His exposition of this life for individual church and society is profound yet simple An excerpt on discerning God's presence In other words the most notorious plain and victorious truth of God is that God participates in our history even yours and mine Our history all our anxieties have become the scene of His presence and the matter of His care We are safe We are free Wherever we turn we shall discover that God is already there Therefore wherever it be fear not be thankful rejoice and boast of God
