Religious Freedom and the Saffron Politics Joseph A Gathia, 2019-01-01 INDIA is the world s largest democracy and the sixth largest economy with the likelihood that this success will continue for many decades in the 21st century India aspires to be super power Will this happen In Religious Freedom and the Saffron Politics the author identifies trends that will shape India s future This book presents a comprehensive overview of religious policy in India since the Independence exposing many of the ambiguities and uncertainties about the position of religion in Indian life and the relation between state and religion Since Narendra Modi s victory in 2014 the critics have been worrying about India drifting towards illiberal democracy status with its secular foundation replaced by some kind of new Hindu majoritarian vision. The Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) has emerged as one of the most powerful organizations in India today with capacity to influence the policy process of the governance. This book addresses the questions: What are the reasons for the tremendous growth of the RSS and its affiliates? How does their rapid growth influence religious freedom in India? This book deals with the controversies that have dominated headlines worldwide such as Ghar Wapsi, cow protection, the National Register of Citizens (NRC), saffronisation in education etc. What constitutes legitimate constitutionally protected religious practice? Does it include the right to Dhamantaran (religious conversion)? This volume is a vivid account of a divided society in the grip of ethnic religious tension and a struggle that will shape not only just India's future but also the world's.

What is Religion? Nigel Ajay Kumar, 2014-01-15. What Is Religion is one of those questions rarely asked by Christian theologians who engage in interreligious discourse. Nigel Ajay Kumar makes the case, however, that to answer this question is critical for Christian scholars who want to negotiate multiple religious identities as well as for those who want a clearer understanding of their own faith as religion. Kumar takes a historical and theological approach to answering this question. The history of the concept of religion is traced from biblical times to the Indian independence era. Then a theological answer is offered not only by looking at the classical Indian theologian Pandipedi Chenchiah but also by listening to other contemporary secular and theological voices. This is the South Asian Edition of the original Wipf Stock edition 2013 with the same name.

The Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC) Jonathan Y. Tan, 2021. This book presents the theological contributions of the Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC), a transnational body comprising fifteen Asian Catholic bishops' conferences as full members and ten associate members. The book introduces the contemporary context of Asia and represents a complete reworking of the author's approach to the FABC's way of being church and doing theology in Asia. The emphasis of the book is on the postcolonial dimensions of Asia and the challenges and implications of decolonization for shaping a postcolonial Asian church and way of theologizing. The book also addresses the challenges of religious pluralism for the FABC and the FABC's prophetic response seeking to be a sacrament of unity and harmony amid much strife, violence, and conflict. Finally, the book discusses new challenges and possibilities for the FABC as it looks ahead. Tan explores the challenges and implications of migration, transient migration online, and virtual communities and insider movements for shaping the future of the FABC's approach to theology.

Theologising with the Sacred 'Prostitutes' of South India Eve Rebecca Parker, 2021-03-22. In Theologising with the Sacred Prostitutes of South India, Eve Rebecca Parker theologises with the Dalit women who from childhood have been dedicated to village goddesses and used as sacred sex workers. Parker uses ethnographic, anthropological, theological, hermeneutical, and historical research and analysis in order to critically engage with the lived religiosity and daily struggles of the dedicated women known as devadās. In doing so, she works towards an Indecent Dalit Liberation Theology that challenges systems of oppression and cultures of impunity.

including casteism sexism classism and a history of socio political and religious marginalisation The result is a profound theologising of struggle and resistance with the sexual narratives of the oppressed Forming a Global Community

Joseph de Rivera,2022-10-18 To address global problems such as pandemics warming economic inequality mass migration and widespread terrorism Joseph de Rivera argues that we must form a global community A community of eight billion humans is difficult to conceive However it can be imagined and created if we transform our understanding of who humans are and what community entails We can understand who persons are how they are motivated and how a community can be conceived in a way that offers an alternative to individualism and collectivism The mutualism that is proposed provides a moral compass for navigating the challenges that confront us and encourages specific governing structures political economies and rituals that will further the formation of a global community Based on the philosophical analysis of John Macmurray the author s argument relies on an extensive review of the current literature on self personhood emotional motivation social identity forms of community and religious and secular rituals Interdisciplinary in nature it aims to direct philosophy and the social sciences to the challenges of globalism and the creation of a global community Religion, Power & Violence ,2005 In Indian context Where does religion end? Marcelo da Luz,2017-08-31 The author s decision to leave religion after experiencing a profound growth crisis founded itself in the free action of one who after walking tenaciously has extinguished an existential possibility and reached a new realm of understanding about the realities of the consciousness and the universe The inner freedom encountered to make this kind of decision was the result of a gradual self confrontation This author perceived the necessity to dispel the fear associated with questioning his habitual suppositions and to look beyond the limits of the indoctrination he had received For a long time while still religious he named this fearlessness a quest for wisdom or the spirituality of an unsettled heart Nowadays in light of the experiences had he prefers to emphasize the courage to evolve which requires five years after the abjuration the assumption of speaking publicly about the dissidence that was effected When dissidents of ideologies or institutions start talking or writing about their experiences it is necessary to observe the kind of motivation and intention implicit in the decision made The former militant the former integrant the former partisan the former something in spite of the effort to affirm that they are no longer part of the institution to which they once belonged may continue to define themselves based on the institution In this case the person is still a former in relation to what they intend to deny Perhaps in their eagerness to critically speak out about the reasons underlying their abandonment of a certain idea or organization they still flaunt the previous condition as a trophy unfurling the pride of being a former The ambiguity in question lies in the fact that the person s point of reference continues to be in the no longer desired way of living or thinking New Subjects and New Governance in India Ranabir Samaddar,Suhit K.

Sen,2014-03-14 This volume looks at the ways in which governance in the exercise of its strategies also acts as a process of production of subjects It argues that governance is not a one sided affair starting and ending with those who rule and govern producing fiat decrees and diktats but a productive process one that produces subjects of governance who in turn respond to the process and make the field of governance a contentious one Against the backdrop of the first transition of democracy in India from its origin in a colonial polity to the first phase of its independent life after the promulgation of the Indian Constitution in 1950 this volume explores the second transition towards developmental democracy examining the interrelations between globalisation development and structures of governance The volume suggests that while there is need to reflect on the governance of transition it is important to question how democracy negotiates this transition The Hindu Self and Its Muslim Neighbors Ankur Barua,2022-04-25 In The Hindu Self and its Muslim Neighbors the author sketches the contours of relations between Hindus and Muslims in Bengal The central argument is that various patterns of amicability and antipathy have been generated towards Muslims over the last six hundred years and these patterns emerge at dynamic intersections between Hindu self understandings and social shifts on contested landscapes The core of the book is a set of translations of the Bengali writings of Rabindranath Tagore 1861 1941 Kazi Nazrul Islam 1899 1976 and Annada Shankar Ray 1904 2002 Their lives were deeply interwoven with some Hindu Muslim synthetic ideas and subjectivities and these involvements are articulated throughout their writings which provide multiple vignettes of contemporary modes of amity and antagonism Barua argues that the characterization of relations between Hindus and Muslims either in terms of an implacable hostility or of an unfragmented peace is historically inaccurate for these relations were modulated by a shifting array of socio economic and socio political parameters It is within these contexts that Rabindranath Nazrul and Annada Shankar are developing their thoughts on Hindus and Muslims through the prisms of religious humanism and universalism Women, Gender and Religious Nationalism Amrita Basu,Tanika Sarkar,2022-11-10 This book reflects the changing modalities of Hindu nationalist organizing among women and youth It provides unique insights into how this immensely powerful political formation has been able to preside over a massive network of grassroots organisations among most segments of Indian society and capture national power Chapters explore the techniques the RSS VHP and BJP employ and the messages they convey about masculinity femininity and LGBTQ communities and analyze contrasting forms of women s activism in defending and opposing Hindu nationalism This book contributes to the global literature on the gender dimensions of rightwing politics By exploring why women advance the agenda of the Hindu Right despite its conservative views on gender and sexuality the book makes an important intervention in feminist and women s studies scholarship Orthodox Religion and Politics in Contemporary Eastern Europe Tobias Koellner,2018-12-07 This book explores the relationship between Orthodox religion and politics in Eastern Europe Russia and Georgia It demonstrates how as these societies undergo substantial transformation Orthodox religion can be both a limiting and an enabling factor how the relationship between religion and politics is complex and how the spheres of religion and politics complement reinforce influence and sometimes contradict each other Considering a range of thematic issues with examples from a wide range of countries with significant

Orthodox religious groups and setting the present situation in its full historical context the book provides a rich picture of a subject which has been too often oversimplified Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth Richard T. Ashcroft, Mark Bevir, 2019-07-12 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Multiculturalism as a distinct form of liberal democratic governance gained widespread acceptance after World War II but in recent years this consensus has been fractured Multiculturalism in the British Commonwealth examines cultural diversity across the postwar Commonwealth situating modern multiculturalism in its national international and historical contexts Bringing together practitioners from across the humanities and social sciences to explore the legal political and philosophical issues involved these essays address common questions What is postwar multiculturalism Why did it come about How have social actors responded to it In addition to chapters on Australia Britain Canada and New Zealand this volume also covers India Malaysia Nigeria Singapore and Trinidad tracing the historical roots of contemporary dilemmas back to the intertwined legacies of imperialism and liberalism In so doing it demonstrates that multiculturalism has implications that stretch far beyond its current formulations in public and academic discourse The Changing World of Caste and Hierarchy in Bengal Sudarshana Bhaumik, 2022-08-26 This book challenges the prevalent assumptions of caste hierarchy and social mobility in pre colonial and colonial Bengal It studies the writings of colonial ethnographers Orientalist scholars Christian missionaries and pre colonial literary texts like the Mangalkavyas to show how the concept of caste emerged and argues that the jati order in Bengal was far from being a rigidly reified structure but one which had room for spatial and social mobility The volume highlights the processes through which popular myths and beliefs of the lower caste orders of Bengal were Sanskritized It delineates the linkages between sedantized peasant culture and the emergence of new agricultural castes in colonial Bengal Moreover the author discusses a wide spectrum of issues like marginality and hierarchy the spread of Brahmanical hegemony the creation of deities and the process of Sanskritization popular Saivism the cult of Manasa in Bengal and the revolt of 1857 and the caste question Rich in archival sources this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of colonial history Indian history political sociology caste studies exclusion studies cultural studies social history cultural history and South Asian studies especially those interested in undivided Bengal
