Religious Traditions In South Asia Interaction And Change:

Religious Traditions in South Asia Geoffrey A. Oddie, 2022-02-22 These studies focus on questions of religious interaction and change in India from the sixth century B C to the present day They represent the work of scholars in a range of disciplines and who are resident mostly in Australia

South Asian Christian Diaspora Selva J. Raj, Knut A. Jacobsen, 2016-04-01 The South Asian Christian diaspora is largely invisible in the literature about religion and migration This is the first comprehensive study of South Asian Christians living in Europe and North America presenting the main features of these diasporas their community histories and their religious practices The South Asian Christian diaspora is pluralistic both in terms of religious adherence cultural tradition and geographical areas of origin This book gives justice to such pluralism and presents a multiplicity of cultures and traditions typical of the South Asian Christian diaspora Issues such as the institutionalization of the religious traditions in new countries identity the paradox of belonging both to a minority immigrant group and a majority religion the social functions of rituals attitudes to language generational transfer and marriage and family life are all discussed

India after the 1857 Revolt M. Christhu Doss, 2022-11-23 Weaving together the varied and complex strands of anti colonial nationalism into one compact narrative Christhu Doss takes an incisive look at the deeper and wider historical process of decolonization in India In India after the 1857 Revolt Doss brings together some of the most cutting edge thoughts by challenging the cultural project of colonialism and critically examining the multi dimensional aspects of decolonization during and after the 1857 revolt He demonstrates that the deep rooted popular discontent among the Indian masses followed by the revolt generated a distinctive form of decolonization movement redemptive nationalism that challenged both the supremacy of the British Raj and the cultural imperatives of the controversial proselytizing missionary agencies Doss argues that the quests for decolonization of mind that got triggered by the revolt were further intensified by the Indocentric national education the historic Chicago discourse of Swami Vivekananda the nonviolent anti colonial struggles of Mahatma Gandhi the seditious political activism displayed by the Western Gandhian missionary satyagrahis and the de Westernization endeavours of the sandwiched Indian Christian nationalists A compelling read for historians political scientists and sociologists it is refreshingly an indispensable guide to all those who are interested in anticolonial struggles and decolonization movements worldwide

The Political Economy of NGOs Jude L. Fernando, 2011-07-08 This book explores the paradoxical relationship between NGOs and capitalism showing that supposedly progressive organisations often promote essentially the same policies and ideas as existing governments It examines how a diverse group of NGOs have shaped state formation in Bangladesh and Sri Lanka It argues that rather than influencing state formation for the better NGOs have been integrated into the capitalist system and their language adopted to give traditional exploitative social relations a transformative appearance This enlightening study will give pause to those who see NGOs as drivers of true social change and will encourage students of development studies to make a deeper analysis of state formation Journal of Asian History ,1999 Indentured Muslims in the Diaspora Maurits S. Hassankhan,Goolam Vahed,Lommarsh Roopnarine,2016-11-10 This is the fourth publication originating from the conference Legacy of Slavery and Indentured Labour Past Present and Future which was organised in June 2013 by the Institute of Graduate Studies and Research IGSR Anton de Kom University of Suriname The core of the book is based on a conference panel which focused specifically on the experience of Muslim with indentured migrants and their descendants This is a significant contribution since the focus of most studies on Indian indenture has been almost exclusively on Hindu religion and culture even though an estimated seventeen percent of migrants were Muslims This book thus fills an important gap in the indentured historiography both to understand that past as well as to make sense of the present when Muslim identities are undergoing rapid changes in response to both local and global realities The book includes a chapter on the experiences of Muslim indentured immigrants of Indonesian descent who settled in Suriname The core questions in the study are as follows What role did Islam play in the lives of Indian Muslim migrants in their new settings during indenture and in the post indenture period How did Islam help migrants adapt and acculturate to their new environment What have been the similarities and differences in practices traditions and beliefs between Muslim communities in the different countries and between them and the country of origin How have Islamic practices and Muslim identities transformed over time What role does Islam play in the Muslims lives in these countries in the contemporary period In order to respond to these questions this book examines the historic place of Islam in migrants place of origin and provides a series of case studies that focus on the various countries to which the indentured Indians migrated such as Mauritius South Africa Guyana Trinidad Suriname and Fiji to understand the institutionalisation of Islam in these settings and the actual lived experience of Muslims which is culturally and historically specific bound by the circumstances of individuals location in time and space The chapters in this volume also provide a snapshot of the diversity and similarity of lived Muslim experiences South Asia ,2006 End-Game Lorenzo DiTommaso,James Crossley,Alastair Lockhart,Rachel Wagner,2024-09-02 Video games are a global phenomenon international in their scope and democratic in their appeal This is the first volume dedicated to the subject of apocalyptic video games Its two dozen papers engage the subject comprehensively from game design to player experience and from the perspectives of content theme sound ludic textures and social function The volume offers scholars students and general readers a thorough overview of this unique expression of the apocalyptic imagination in popular culture and novel insights into an important facet of contemporary digital society Reform, Identity and Narratives of Belonging Arkotong Longkumer,2011-11-03 Reform Identity and Narratives of Belonging focuses on the Heraka a religious reform movement and its impact on the Zeme a Naga tribe in the North Cachar Hills of Assam India Drawing upon critical studies of religion cultural ethnic identity and nationalism archival research in both India and Britain and fieldwork in Assam the book initiates new grounds for understanding the evolving notions of reform and identity in the emergence of a Heraka religion Arkotong

Longkumer argues that reform and identity are dynamically inter related and linked to the revitalisation and negotiation of both tradition legitimising indigeneity and change legitimising reform The results have deepened yet challenged not only prevailing views of the Western construction of the category religion but also understandings of how marginalised communities use collective historical imagination to inspire self identification through the discourse of religion In conclusion this book argues for a re evaluation of the way in which multi religious traditions interact to reshape identities and belongings

Shared Characters in Jain, Buddhist and Hindu Narrative Naomi Appleton, 2016-11-25 Taking a comparative approach which considers characters that are shared across the narrative traditions of early Indian religions Brahmanical Hinduism Jainism and Buddhism Shared Characters in Jain Buddhist and Hindu Narrative explores key religious and social ideals as well as points of contact dialogue and contention between different worldviews The book focuses on three types of character gods heroes and kings that are of particular importance to early South Asian narrative traditions because of their relevance to the concerns of the day such as the role of deities the qualities of a true hero or good ruler and the tension between worldly responsibilities and the pursuit of liberation Characters including character roles and lineages of characters that are shared between traditions reveal both a common narrative heritage and important differences in worldview and ideology that are developed in interaction with other worldviews and ideologies of the day As such this study sheds light on an important period of Indian religious history and will be essential reading for scholars and postgraduate students working on early South Asian religious or narrative traditions Jain Buddhist and Hindu as well as being of interest more widely in the fields of Religious Studies Classical Indology Asian Studies and Literary Studies

Law and Identity in Colonial South Asia Mitra Sharafi, 2014-04-21 This book explores the legal culture of the Parsis or Zoroastrians an ethnoreligious community unusually invested in the colonial legal system of British India and Burma Rather than trying to maintain collective autonomy and integrity by avoiding interaction with the state the Parsis sank deep into the colonial legal system itself From the late eighteenth century until India's independence in 1947 they became heavy users of colonial law acting as lawyers judges litigants lobbyists and legislators They de Anglicized the law that governed them and enshrined in law their own distinctive models of the family and community by two routes frequent intra group litigation often managed by Parsi legal professionals in the areas of marriage inheritance religious trusts and libel and the creation of legislation that would become Parsi personal law Other South Asian communities also turned to law but none seem to have done so earlier or in more pronounced ways than the Parsis

Early Interactions Between South and Southeast Asia Pierre-Yves Manguin, A. Mani, Geoff Wade, 2011 This book takes stock of the results of some two decades of intensive archaeological research carried out on both sides of the Bay of Bengal in combination with renewed approaches to textual sources and to art history To improve our understanding of the trans cultural process commonly referred to as Indianisation it brings together specialists of both India and Southeast Asia in a fertile inter disciplinary confrontation Most of the essays reappraise the millennium long historiographic no man's land during which exchanges between the two shores of the Bay of Bengal led among other processes to the Indianisation of those parts of the region that straddled the main routes of exchange Some essays follow up these processes into better known classical times or even into modern times showing that the localisation process of Indian themes has long remained at work allowing local societies to produce their own social space and express their own ethos

Historical Dictionary of the Bengalis Kunal Chakrabarti, Shubhra Chakrabarti, 2013-08-22 The Bengali Bangla speaking people are located in the northeastern part of South Asia particularly in Bangladesh and two states of India West Bengal and Tripura There are almost 246 million Bengalis at present which makes them the fifth largest speech community in the world Despite political and social divisions they share a common literary and musical culture and several habits of daily existence which impart to them a distinct identity The Bengalis are known for their political consciousness and cultural accomplishments The Historical Dictionary of the Bengalis provides an overview of the Bengalis across the world from the earliest Chalcolithic cultures to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 750 cross referenced dictionary entries on politicians educators and entrepreneurs leaders of religious and secular institutions writers painters actors and other cultural figures and more generally on the economy education political parties religions women and minorities literature art and architecture music cinema and other major sectors This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Bengalis

A Day in a Working Life Gary Westfahl, 2015-04-21 Ideal for high school and college students studying history through the everyday lives of men and women this book offers intriguing information about the jobs that people have held from ancient times to the 21st century This unique book provides detailed studies of more than 300 occupations as they were practiced in 21 historical time periods ranging from prehistory to the present day Each profession is examined in a compelling essay that is specifically written to inform readers about career choices in different times and cultures and is accompanied by a bibliography of additional sources of information sidebars that relate historical issues to present day concerns as well as related historical documents Readers of this work will learn what each profession entailed or entails on a daily basis how one gained entry to the vocation training methods and typical compensation levels for the job The book provides sufficient specific detail to convey a comprehensive understanding of the experiences benefits and downsides of a given profession Selected accompanying documents further bring history to life by offering honest testimonies from people who actually worked in these occupations or interacted with those in that field

Construction of the Other, Identification of the Self Martin Tamcke, Gladson Jathanna, 2012 This volume of diverse contributions revisits the European religious construction of the Indian Other In their attempt to identify their European Self missionaries from Germany constructed India as their Other and archived such constructions Such archival narratives epitomize the conviction of these missionaries in their Christian faith and their belief in the superiority of the European Self These narratives however provide readers for whose eyes they were not meant originally with spaces to locate their own past and to identify their own Self

Series Studies on Oriental Church History Studien zur Orientalischen Kirchengeschichte Vol 45 First World War and its Impact on German Lutheran Mission Societies in India Murthy Jayabalan, 2023-08-25 This academic inquiry attempts to explore the state of relations between the German Christian missionaries and the Christian English government before and after World War I in India the unpleasant consequences on German Missionaries and their families by the unwarranted attack of the German Cruiser SMS Emden on the Madras Presidency aggravated further by the act of a former soldier in the guise of a missionary It uncovers the involvement of the German military Nachrichtenstelle f r den Orient NfO and the Hindu revolutionaries in causing unrest in India to derail the economy and tarnish the image of the British Government It exposes the joining forces of diametrically opposite ideologies the German Christian Government German Christian missionary in NfO and the Indian Hindu revolutionaries on a common platform Likewise it uncovers the manipulation of the selfsame Scripture by the doctrinally similar Christian denominations to whip up their clashing nationalistic passions Further this research narrates the bitter experiences of separated missionary spouses scattered family members the plight of children deportation gruelling voyages seasickness experiences of missionaries as Prisoners of War POW etc The following three methods were combined for this research a World War I historiographical approach coupled with a collective biographical approach and an entanglement approach I used archived and published English German and Tamil sources The main archives were the Political Archives of the Foreign Office PAAA in Berlin the archives of the Franckesche Foundations in Halle the Mission Society in Leipzig the British Library in London and the United Theological College Bangalore the Gurukul Lutheran Theological College Chennai and Avanakappakam National Archives Chennai the materials in the Political Foreign Office PAAA in Berlin concerning the correspondence between the Intelligence Service for the Orient and the Indian revolutionaries the archive of the Franckesche Foundation in Halle contained in the two volumes in one file from the Indian Mission during the war 1914 1916 and The Leibniz Centre for Modern Orient archives Berlin Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Jorge N. Ferrer, 2001-10-19 In his striking debut Jorge N Ferrer deconstructs and reconstructs the entire transpersonal project articulating a more sophisticated pluralistic and spiritually grounded transpersonal theory He brings recent ideas in epistemology and the philosophy of science to bear upon core issues in the psychology and philosophy of religion The book s first half Deconstruction describes the nature and origins of the prevailing vision that has guided transpersonal scholarship so far and identifies some of its main conceptual and practical limitations subtle Cartesianism spiritual narcissism intrasubjective empiricism and reductionistic universalism In the second half of the book Reconstruction Ferrer suggests a way of reconceiving transpersonal ideas without these limitations a participatory vision of human spirituality one which not only places transpersonal studies in greater alignment with the values of the spiritual quest but also discloses a rich variety of spiritual liberations spiritual worlds and even ultimate realities Indo-British Review ,1991 Nation and Family

Narendra Subramanian, 2014-04-09 The distinct personal laws that govern the major religious groups are a major aspect of Indian multiculturalism and secularism and support specific gendered rights in family life Nation and Family is the most comprehensive study to date of the public discourses processes of social mobilization legislation and case law that formed India's three major personal law systems which govern Hindus Muslims and Christians It for the first time systematically compares Indian experiences to those in a wide range of other countries that inherited personal laws specific to religious group sect or ethnic group The book shows why India's postcolonial policy makers changed the personal laws they inherited less than the rulers of Turkey and Tunisia but far more than those of Algeria Syria and Lebanon and increased women's rights for the most part contrary to the trend in Pakistan Iran Sudan and Nigeria since the 1970s Subramanian demonstrates that discourses of community and features of state society relations shape the course of personal law Ruling elites discourses about the nation its cultural groups and its traditions interact with the state society relations that regimes inherit and the projects of regimes to change their relations with society These interactions influence the pattern of multiculturalism the place of religion in public policy and public life and the forms of regulation of family life The book shows how the greater engagement of political elites with initiatives among the Hindu majority and the predominant place they gave Hindu motifs in discourses about the nation shaped Indian multiculturalism and secularism contrary to current understandings In exploring the significant role of communitarian discourses in shaping state society relations and public policy it takes state in society approaches to comparative politics political sociology and legal studies in new directions Religion and the Secular

Timothy Fitzgerald, 2014-12-05 Religion has dominated colonialism since the 16th century Religion and the Secular critically examines how religion has been used to subject indigenous concepts to the needs of colonial powers Essays present the colonial relationship from the perspective of colonized cultures including Mexico Guatemala Vietnam India Japan South Africa and Canada and colonizing powers namely England Germany and the United States The volume offers a historical and ethnographical analysis of the relationship between the sacred and the secular examining religion in relation to politics economics and civil power
