Lynne Gerber,Susan Hill,LeRhonda Manigault-Bryant,2021-05-13 Fat Religion Protestant Christianity and the Construction of the Fat Body explores how Protestant Christianity contributes to the moralization of fat bodies and the proliferation of practices to conform fat bodies to thin ideals Focusing primarily on Protestant Christianity and evangelicalism this book brings together essays that emphasize the role of religion in the ways that we imagine talk about and moralize fat bodies Contributors explore how ideas about indulgence and restraint sin and obedience are used to create and maintain fear of and animosity towards fat bodies They also examine how religious ideology and language shape attitudes towards bodily control that not only permeate Christian weight loss programs but are fundamental to secular diet culture as well Furthermore the contributors investigate how religious institutions themselves attempt to define and control the proper religious body This volume contributes to the burgeoning field of critical fat studies by underscoring the significance of religion in the formation of historical and contemporary meanings and perceptions of fat bodies including its moralizing role in justifying weight bias prejudice and privilege The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Fat Studies An Interdisciplinary Journal of Body Weight and Society

Religion and Consumer Behaviour Gaurav Gupta,Mandakini Paruthi,Shivinder Nijjer,2023-02-28 Religion is an important part of individual lives playing a major role in our decision making and purchasing Understanding the influence of religion on consumer behaviour is therefore an essential practice for business The COVID 19 pandemic has especially enhanced the influence of consumers religiosity on their consumption decisions This book concentrates on understanding the relationship of religiosity with various aspects of consumption and consumer behaviour to improve policy and build on an under represented topic In this edited collection expert contributors academicians and researchers discuss the influence of religion on consumer behaviour in depth including the dark side of religion on consumers consumption behaviour and religious cults The chapters also explore the ethical issues surrounding consumption and the role of religion on branding and sustainable practices With a broad perspective the book draws on examples of practices from Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism This book will be a particularly valuable resource for scholars and upper level students of marketing consumer behaviour and consumer psychology The interdisciplinary perspectives will also appeal to those studying sociology and globalization Healthy Foods and Dietary Patterns in Modern Consumer Prisco Piscitelli,Annamaria Anita Livia Colao,2023-09-15 The Oxford Handbook of Food History Jeffrey M. Pilcher,2012-10-16 Food matters not only as a subject of study in its own right but also as a medium for conveying critical messages about capitalism the environment and social inequality to diverse audiences Recent scholarship on the subject draws from both a pathbreaking body of secondary literature and an inexhaustible wealth of primary sources from ancient Chinese philosophical tracts to McDonald s menus contributing new perspectives to the historical study of food culture and society and challenging the limits of history itself The Oxford Handbook of Food History places existing works in historiographical context crossing disciplinary chronological and geographic boundaries while also suggesting new routes for future research The twenty seven essays in this book are organized into five sections historiography disciplinary approaches production circulation and consumption of food The first two sections examine the foundations of food history not only in relation to key developments in the discipline of history itself such as the French Annales school and the cultural turn but also in anthropology sociology geography pedagogy and the emerging Critical Nutrition Studies The following three sections sketch various trajectories of food as it travels from farm to table factory to eatery nature to society Each section balances material cultural and intellectual concerns whether juxtaposing questions of agriculture and the environment with the notion of cookbooks as historical documents early human migrations with modern culinary tourism or religious customs with social activism In its vast interdisciplinary scope this handbook brings students and scholars an authoritative guide to a field with fresh insights into one of the most fundamental human concerns

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored
