New Directions in Religious and Values Education Leslie J. Francis,Stephen Parker,David W.

Lankshear,2021 This volume brings together 15 studies reporting the latest international research on developments and trends in religious education Together these 15 studies illustrate recurrent themes affecting the development of religious education in diverse locations and also illustrate the distinctive trajectories of locations shaped by different histories and by different contemporary contexts These contributions were brought together in a recent seminar convened by the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values the leading international association for religious educators and values educators across the world This volume has selected key contributions made to the seminar spanning both conceptual and empirical perspectives rooted in both religious and secular traditions

Values Education John R. Meyer,Brian Burnham,John Cholvat,1975-07 Values those intangible guideposts serve as standards and perceptual screens which assist us in selecting our priorities for reflection and action Our quest is to clarify compare and form values expressed in defensible and consistent value judgements and actions

Values in Education Eva Burman,Maxine Cooper,Lorraine Ling,Joan Stephenson,Joan Stephenson*Nfa,2005-06-22 Based upon an empirical study involving training and practising teachers from seven countries this book investigates the various attitudes and practices towards the teaching of values and their place in the curriculum Countries covered include Australia Eire Israel Slovenia Switzerland UK and USA The findings of each of the countries are compared and contrasted in the light of the diverse cultural conditions which are apparent This book brings together various approaches currently taken in values education and also suggests a theoretical foundation for decision making The book culminates in practical examples drawn from the evidence of the research project which teachers can adapt for use with their own pupils This book provides a challenging and imaginative perspective on values in education and comes at a time when educators face a new era which demands dynamic transformative and reflective approaches

Special Religious Education in Australia and its Value to Contemporary Society Zehavit Gross,Suzanne D. Rutland,2021-02-22 This book explores the advantages of and challenges concerning Special Religious Education SRE in multicultural Australia and argues for the need for General Religious Education GRE as well. Through the lens of the most recent scholarship and drawing on an in depth qualitative study and specific case studies the book examines the current debate on the role of religious education within government schools. It addresses key concepts of values education spirituality health and wellbeing and cultural and religious identity. It analyses why it is important to retain SRE together with GRE as government policy. It explores highly relevant controversial and contested issues regarding SRE including the 30% of Australia's population who declare themselves as having no religion and brings fresh insights to the table. While secularization has increased in both the national and international spheres there has also been an increase in fundamentalism within religious beliefs. Events such as the September 11 terror attacks and the more recent mass shootings by white supremacists and eco fascists in Christchurch New Zealand and Pittsburgh and San Diego in the USA are reminders that religion is still a major actor in the twenty first century. This poses new challenges for the relationship between church and state and demonstrates the need to revisit the role of religious education within government schools. While the importance of GRE is generally acknowledged SRE has increasingly come under attack by some researchers and teacher and parent bodies as being inappropriate and contradictory to the values of the postmodern world. On the other hand the key stakeholders from all the faith traditions in Australia wish to retain the SRE classes in government schools. The book addresses this burning issue and shows that it is relevant not only for Australia but also globally.

Values, Human Rights and Religious Education Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis, David W. Lankshear, 2018. This volume brings together three key and contested areas facing educationalists within schools colleges and universities: values education religious education and human rights education. Challenges and opportunities within each of these three areas may be illuminated and explored by bringing them into creative dialogue. These core constructs were explored in a recent seminar convened by the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values the leading international association for religious educators and values educators across the world. This volume presents twenty one key contributions made to the seminar spanning both conceptual and empirical perspectives and rooted in both religious and secular traditions. It draws together a unique collection of international perspectives on the interlocking themes of values human rights and religious education.

Values - Politics - Religion: The European Values Study Regina Polak, Patrick Rohs, 2023-07-18. This open access book analyses the international data of the European Values Study EVS 1990 2017 with a focus on the impact of religion on political values from empirical as well as theoretical perspectives in sociology political and cultural studies philosophy ethics theology and the law. It interprets results from interdisciplinary perspectives including the viewpoints of social ethics sociology and cultural studies law and practical theology. In the political and public as well as media debates of the European Union the recourse to above all European and also Christian values has played a central and controversial role in the field of politics and religion for several decades. This collection is a contribution to a qualified discourse on values in Europe by providing empirical hermeneutical and ethical criteria for a responsible use of the concept of values In addition to a comparison of political value systems in Western and Eastern Europe and the possible role of religion in this context the book also deals with topics such as solidarity economics and values value formation and law and values Additionally specific population groups such as the socio culturally marginalized strata are examined more closely Besides current scientific analyses and interpretations of interest to researchers from various disciplines this book also offers valuable impulses and suggestions for various multipliers in political civil society and religious organisations as well as a sound overview for graduate students
