Remaking Our Schools:

Remaking Our Schools for the Twenty-First Century Robert Arnold, 2013-07-01 If you are a teacher a parent a grandparent or just another taxpayer and you think the future of our country rests in a large part in the hands of our educational systems and you expect the schools to play a key role in raising our youth to become competent responsible citizens then you need to find out why that is not happening Remaking Our Schools for the Twenty First Century written by Robert L Arnold Professor of Education Emeritus provides an in depth analysis of these problems in our public schools Teachers are sick and tired of being forced to adopt and use irrelevant materials and developmentally inappropriate procedures along with a standardized testing program that makes no sense They want our youth to be excited about learning and ideas They need to know how drug abuse bullying and other serious problems are related to the disconnected and irrelevant school experiences being imposed on their students in the name of raising standards Our public schools need to develop far greater competency in general education and problem solving skills in all students Our democracy cannot be sustained much longer if upcoming generations continue to exhibit deficiencies in these areas Standardization is not the answer to problems The mass production and sale of a common core set of educational books tests and worksheets is required for corporate conglomerates to make huge profits on the backs of our students Standardization is part of the problem not part of the solution Remaking Our Schools Ed Pino, 1993 Transforming Schools Miranda Jefferson, Michael Anderson, 2017-02-09 Transforming Schools demonstrates how transformation is no longer an option in teaching and learning it has become a necessity Changes in the way we work and the challenges of issues such as climate change poverty and migration mean that teaching and learning need to alter to incorporate capacities that will help us meet those challenges The 4Cs Creativity Critical Reflection Communication and Collaboration have long been present in education but Transforming Schools demonstrates how schools can change teaching and leadership to embed and enact the 4Cs to make them central to dynamic and exciting learning Miranda Jefferson and Michael Anderson demonstrate how a renewed approach to teaching that integrates the 4Cs can better equip today s learners They draw on their own international research and experiences in school transformation in a variety of school settings working in partnership with practitioners researchers students and the community The authors consider how schools might reorganise themselves to become more relevant to their students and to the community Practical strategies for transformation are included throughout the chapters to demonstrate how learning can be supported and how the 4Cs can be made explicit in schools These examples will support school leadership teams and teachers to explicitly teach the 4Cs in relevant and challenging ways This book is essential reading for those looking to transform schools and more effectively meet the needs of today s learners American Education , 1908 The Business of Reforming American Schools Denise Gelberg, 1997-10-02 A critical look at the influence of the business community on the school reform movement specifically how popular business management theories have been used as tools to produce a workforce for the 21st century Keeping Pace with the Advancing Curriculum National Education Association of the United States. Research Division,1925 Research bulletin ,1925 NEA Research Bulletin ,1923 Genealogical Pragmatism John J. Stuhr,Arts and Sciences Distinguished Professor of Philosophy John J Stuhr,1997-01-01 Drawing on the work of popular American writers American philosophers and Continental thinkers this book provides a new interpretation of pragmatism and American philosophy Wealth Vs. Work Allan C. Ornstein,2012-01-05 Wealth vs Work How 1% Victimize 99% is about the vanishing American dream growing inequality inAmerica shrinking and struggling middle class plight of labor and unions economic decline of the nation and a broken and unstable world surrounding theU S Education is no longer the great equalizer We are heading toward a world where inherited privilege trumps excellence and meritocracy Carried far enough it means the end of striving and the American dream Few Americans realize or want to admit it Since recorded history workers have been victimized by the rich and super rich treated as fungible and disposable The early warlords and monarchs have been replaced by the titans of industry and masters of the universe on Wall Street The slaves peasants and serfs have been replaced by miners factory workers and service sector workers The GM model of the 1950s and 1960s that permitted labor to become middle class has been replaced by the Wal Mart modelcharacterized by low pay and minimal benefits By 2025 the economic output of China and India may likely each exceed the U S Moreover the U S work force is being increasingly displaced by technology and outsourcing But we are supposed to be the lucky ones By historical and geographical accident the U S has been spared most of the worlds poverty and misery Today however the U S is heading towards a financial oligarchymuch worse than the aristocratic old world that our Founding Fathers feared and tried to avoid Yes the U S had a revolution but in fact it has a new and more powerful elite because the economic pie has expanded several thousand fold since the yeoman farmers status was compared to the plantation owner Right now the top 1 percent in the U S own nearly 40 percent of the nations wealth moreover their investments capital gains and dividends are taxed at a lower rate than workers salaries Like all great civilizations that have declined before us we are a nation that needs to re examine its ideals and institutions Remaking

The Quest for Argumentative Equivalence

Emanuele Brambilla,2020-02-17 What are the implications of strategic manoeuvring for the activity of the simultaneous interpreter This is the main question addressed in The Quest for Argumentative Equivalence Based on the analysis of a multilingual comparable corpus named ARGO the book investigates political argumentation with an eye to its reformulation by interpreters After reporting and discussing a series of case studies illustrating interpreters problems in the political context the study reconstructs the prototypical argumentative patterns used by Obama Cameron Sarkozy and Hollande not only in a hermeneutical perspective but also considering interpreters need to reproduce them into a foreign language Situated at the intersection of Argumentation Theory and Interpreting Studies the book provides a contribution to the descriptive study of political argumentation highlighting the presence of interpreters as a key contextual variable in political communication and deepening the study of the interlinguistic and translational implications of the act of arguing
