Remembered Rapture:

remembered rapture bell hooks, 2013-06-04 In Remembered Rapture The Writer at Work award winning author and renowned academic bell hooks reveals the heart of her writing life and the process through which she has come to be known as a visionary feminist. Essence Born and raised in the rural South bell hooks learned early the power of the written word and the importance of speaking her mind. Her passion for words is the heartbeat of this collection of essays. Remembered Rapture celebrates literacy the joys of reading and writing and the lasting power of the book. With grace and insight these essays reveal bell hooks's wide ranging intellectual scope untangling the complex personae of women writers especially those whose work goes against the grain. For anyone who writes or seeks to understand the writing process or wants to know more about the erudite and passionate mind of bell hooks this is the book to read. The Philadelphia Inquirer The Ascension of the Messiah in Lukan Christology Arie W. Zwiep, 2014-04-09 Building on the form critical assessment of the Lukan ascension story Lk 24:50-53 Acts 1:1-12 as a rapture story and motivated by the consideration that the monotheistic principle almost inevitably must have led to a reestimate of the meaning and function of rapture in comparison with heathen rapture stories immortalisation and deification the present study seeks to investigate the Lukan ascension story in the light of the first century Jewish rapture traditions Enoch Elijah Moses Baruch Ezra etc. The author argues that first century Judaism provides a more plausible horizon of understanding for the ascension story than the Graeco Roman rapture tradition and that Luke develops his rapture christology not as a reinterpretation of the primitive exaltation kerygma G. Lohfink but as a response to the eschatological question i.e. the delay of the parousia so as to secure the unity of salvation history Writing With, Through, and Beyond the Text Rebecca Luce-Kapler, 2004-07-19 Writing With Through and Beyond the Text An Ecology of Language elaborates an understanding of writing its influences on our interpretations of experience and identity and its potential for enabling individuals to learn about and connect to the world beyond themselves. Rather than considering writing a process the author describes it as a system an ecology that engages the individual in a variety of socially constituted and interacting systems. The book examines the pedagogical and curricular implications of this approach to writing considering what it means to write and teach writing in ways that understand and acknowledge the ecological character of writing. This is an illuminating text for a wide audience of faculty professionals and graduate students in English writing education and women's studies feminist theory Voice First Sonya Huber, 2022-09 Voice First offers writers and teachers of writing an opportunity not only to engage their voices but to understand and experience how developing their range of voices strengthens their writing Forgiveness and Truth Alistair McFadyen, Marcel Sarot, 2002-01-01 An international group of theologians considers the importance of forgiveness and truth in the modern world. Dogmatic and practical theological themes are addressed including Christology and atonement forgiving abusive parents the economics of forgiveness forgiveness in Northern Ireland and shame sin and guilt. The story of African Americans in Kentucky is as diverse and vibrant as the state's general history. The work of more than 150 writers. The Kentucky African American Encyclopedia is an essential guide to the black experience in the Commonwealth. The encyclopedia includes biographical sketches of politicians and community leaders as well as pioneers in art, science, and industry. Kentucky's impact on the national scene is registered in an array of notable figures such as writers William Wells Brown and bell hooks, reformers Bessie Lucas Allen and Shelby Lanier Jr, sports icons Muhammad Ali and Isaac Murphy, civil rights leaders Whitney Young Jr and Georgia Powers, and entertainers Ernest Hogan, Helen Humes, and the Nappy Roots. Featuring entries on the individuals, events, places, organizations, movements, and institutions that have shaped the state's history since its origins, the volume also includes topical essays on the civil rights movement, Eastern Kentucky coalfields, business, education, and women. For researchers, students, and all who cherish local history, The Kentucky African American Encyclopedia is an indispensable reference that highlights the diversity of the state's culture and history. The Debtor Mary Eleanor Wilkins Freeman, 1906. The tale of a good man whose life and soul are destroyed by mounting debt.

Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities Mohammad H. Tamdgidi, 2009-06-01. This Summer 2009 VII 3 issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is devoted to the theme Sociological Re-Imaginations in of Universities. As part of the journal's continuing series critically engaging with C Wright Mills' sociological imagination, it is the proposition that the best way to theorize and practice sociology is via a continual conversation between the study of one's personal troubles and that of broader public issues; the present issue turns its attention to fostering sociological re-imaginings in and of universities. Several faculty, recent graduates or alumni, and current undergraduate students advance insightful critical perspectives about their own learning and teaching experiences and personal troubles and broader university disciplinary and administrative/public issues that in their view merit immediate attention in favor of fundamental rectifications of outdated procedures and educational habits that continue to persist at the cost of more creative and in fact more scientific and rational approaches to production and dissemination of knowledge. Contributors include Satoshi Ikeda, Sandra J Song, L Lynda Harling, Stalker Jason, Pridmore Festus, Ikeotuonye Samuel, Zalanga Donald, A Nielsen, Anne Bubriski, Penelope Roode, Belle Summer, E M Walsh, Ann Marie Moler, Minxing Zheng, Andrew Messing, Jillian Pelletier, Christine Quinn, Trevor Doherty, Lisa Kemmerer, and Mohammad H Tamdgidi, also as journal editor in chief. Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR, The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia, Mysticism, and Science/Utopistics. This book investigates the development of Afro-German literature in the context of the African American experience and shows the decisive role of literature for the emergence of the Afro German Movement Various Afro German literary and cultural initiatives which began in the 1980s arose as a response to the experience of being marginalized to the point of invisibility within a dominant Eurocentric culture that could not bring the notions of Black and German together in a meaningful way The book is a significant contribution to the understanding of German literature as multi ethnic and of the transatlantic networks operating in the African Diasporas All Things Human Stuart Benton, 2014-08-20 Here is a remarkable vintage tour de force of the Fifties in which Stuart Benton explores the range of human experience from the sublime to the exotically degrading Marriage illicit love the uneasy relationship between children and parents business success and failure a trial for murder a descent into the underworld of society and later ascent to the delights of a swiftly moving jaded society set all these can be found in the fabric of All Things Human John Stuart Kent is a millionaire banker and aesthete living out the Indian Summer of his life as the shape of his future is altered by five extraordinary women Helen his young wife a resentful Galatea whose pathological jealousy cools their relationship Sylvia a fascinating and magnanimous Wagnerian singer with flaming red hair and a fresh attitude toward love Aimee a courtesan par excellence Edda Kent's secretary sweet young and unashamed who fumbles into scandalous catastrophe Ivy a sophisticate of enormous wealth and esoteric accomplishments John Stuart Kent endures a Faust like descent to a modern mechanized Hell experiencing all the humiliations and betrayals of modern society and its strange criminal procedures on his way In the fight for his good name and his liberty Kent must use all of his charm and wit and enlist the help of a few friends or he could be stuck in the abyss of the criminal system forever

Reflective Writing in Counselling and Psychotherapy Jeannie Wright, Gillie Bolton, 2012-04-05 Have you been asked to keep a personal development portfolio or reflective journal Are you struggling to know where to start how to write or what to include If the answer is yes Reflective Writing in Counselling and Psychotherapy will provide you with a straightforward route in telling you all you need to know about writing reflectively for your own personal and professional development Offering staged exercises case studies examples and ideas for self directed learning this book will lead the reader along an exciting journey of written self awareness The Spirit of Our Work Cynthia B. Dillard, 2021-11-16 An exploration of how engaging identity and cultural heritage can transform teaching and learning for Black women educators in the name of justice and freedom in the classroom In The Spirit of Our Work Dr Cynthia Dillard centers the spiritual lives of Black women educators and their students arguing that spirituality has guided Black people throughout the diaspora She demonstrates how Black women teachers and teacher educators can heal resist and re member their identities in ways that are empowering for them and their students Dillard emphasizes that any discussion of Black teachers lives and work cannot be limited to truncated identities as enslaved persons in the Americas The Spirit of Our Work addresses questions that remain largely invisible in what is known about teaching and teacher education According to Dillard this invisibility renders the powerful approaches to Black education that are embodied and marshaled by Black women teachers unknown and largely unavailable to inform policy practice and theory in education The Spirit of Our Work highlights how the intersectional identities of Black women teachers matter in teaching and learning and how educational settings might more carefully and conscientiously curate structures of support that pay explicit and necessary attention to spirituality as a crucial consideration

Autoethnography and the Other Tami Spry, 2016-03-31 Challenging the critique of autoethnography as overly focused on the self Tami Spry calls for a performative autoethnography that both unsettles the I and represents the Other with equal commitment Expanding on her popular book Body Paper Stage Spry uses a variety of examples literary forms and theoretical traditions to reframe this research method as transgressive liberatory and decolonizing for both self and Other Her book draws on her own autoethnographic work with jazz musicians shamans and other groups outlines a utopian performative methodology to spur hope and transformation provides concrete guidance on how to implement this innovative methodological approach Poems Arthur Symonds, 1912 The Architecture of Suspense Christine Madrid

French, 2022-09-08 The inimitable haunting films of Alfred Hitchcock took place in settings both exterior and interior that deeply impacted our experiences of his most unforgettable works From the enclosed spaces of Rope and Rear Window to the wide open expanses of North by Northwest the physical worlds inhabited by desperate characters are a crucial element in our perception of the Hitchcockian universe As Christine Madrid French reveals in this original and indispensable book Hitchcock's relation to the built world was informed by an intense engagement with location and architectural form in an era marked by modernism's advance fueled by some of the most creative midcentury designers in film Hitchcock saw elements of the built world not just as scenic devices but as interactive areas to frame narrative exchanges In his films building forms also serve a sentient purpose to capture and convey feelings sensations and moments that generate an emotive response from the viewer Visualizing the contemporary built landscape allowed the director to illuminate Americans' everyday experiences as well as their own uncertain relationship with their environment and with each other French shares several untold stories such as the real life suicide outside the Hotel Empire in Vertigo which foreshadowed uncannily that film's tragic finale and takes us to the actual buildings that served as the inspiration for Psycho's infamous Bates Motel Her analysis of North by Northwest uncovers the Frank Lloyd Wright underpinnings for Robert Boyle's design of the modernist house from the film's celebrated Mount Rushmore sequence and ingeniously establishes the Vandamm House as the prototype of the cinematic trope of the villain's lair She also shows how the widespread unemployment of the 1930s resulted in a surge of gifted architects transplanting their careers into the film industry These practitioners created sets that drew from contemporary design schools of thought and referenced real structures both modern and historic The Architecture of Suspense is the first book to document how these great architectural minds found expression in Hitchcock's films and how the director used their talents and his own unique vision to create an enduring and evocative cinematic world Publication of this volume was assisted by a grant from Furthermore a program of the J M Kaplan Fund Emergent Writing
