

Ode to a Lost Pet

We do not mourn the messes you made
Or miss all the work we had to do
To make sure you did not get lost when we played
Or train you about where to poo.

We miss your soft eyes,
And the kindness they held.
And to our surprise,
We miss your smell as well.

We miss each little thing we remember,
Each thing we loved about you.
You were, after all, a family member,
So, I guess, yes, we even miss the poo.

Remembering Pets A For Children Who Have Lost A Pet:

Remembering Pets Gina Dalpra-Berman,2010 A little girl fondly remembers her bird Michie who died She recalls common memories of her pet inviting readers to share her feelings Remembering My Pet Nechama Liss-Levinson,Molly Phinney Baskette,2007 Honest caring words and hands on activities to help kids accept and grow through the loss of a beloved pet Why did this happen How do I feel What can I do What happens next The death of a pet is often a child s first encounter with grief How your child learns to cope through this experience may affect his or her attitude into adulthood Drawing on concepts from psychology and a broad multifaith perspective this supportive workbook provides a sensitive and practical resource that will help children ages 7 to 13 cope with the death of a beloved animal Children can write draw read create and express feelings via concrete hands on activities including Becoming a Memory Detective to piece together clues to remember their pet Planning a memorial service and making a pet memorial Recording photo memories of their pet Honoring their pet s memory by giving to others Open and gentle this book will help your child and you as the parent understand difficult concepts and communicate deep feelings as your child grows through this personal season of mourning

Teaching with Books that Heal Patricia L. Kolencik,Carianne Bernadowski,2007-05-31 Help children learn coping skills through literature This book answers the often repeated question Is there a children s book I can read in my classroom to give children insight into significant life events Literature ideas and activities help students cope with real life situations such as bullying that interfere with school This book will assist educators in guiding and nurturing children s special issues and concerns with outstanding ready to go reading and writing lessons This professional resource for K 6 educators and parents uses literature with identifiable characters to help children who are facing challenges in their lives Like bullying peer acceptance peer pressure and being different as well as family situations such as death divorce adoption and sibling rivalry

My Pet Memory Book Pinfold Publishing,S. Wallace,2019-01-04 Losing a pet is heartbreaking for all the family but can be particularly difficult for a child This book will help any child who is grieving for a family pet who has died The book allows them to fill in all the information they like about their pet and has plenty of room for pictures either drawn or to stick in photographs The book will help the child recall happy memories about their time with their pet Parents can help the child fill the book in if needed Children can fill in as much or as little of the book as they like and at their own pace Sections of the book include Me and My Pet My Pet s Favourite Things To Do My Favourite Things To Do With My Pet My Pet s Favourite Food and Treats The Silliest Things My Pet Did The Naughtiest Things My Pet Did Why My Pet Wouldn t Want Me To Be Sad Using the book will help the child as they grieve for their lost pet by helping them recall happy memories which they can record The final section Why My Pet Wouldn t Want Me To Be Sad will prompt the child to think about why they don t have to stay sad forever Children will be able to look at the book whenever they like in the future which makes it a lovely keepsake and also reassures the child that the pet will never be forgotten Makes a thoughtful gift for any child who has lost a pet The book is 7 x 9 in size so large enough for a child to have plenty of room to write but small enough to be stored or carried easily The book has 22 prompted pages giving plenty of scope for the child to write what they would like but not so big that it overwhelms them Each prompted page has a blank page behind meaning no worrying about bleed through if they draw a picture or giving extra room for writing or pictures Please use the Look Inside function to ensure you are happy with the format and style of the book About The Author This book was created to help the Author s children when one of the family pets sadly died The children were worried that they would forget their pet The book meant that they could record their memories of the pet so that he wouldn t be forgotten and helped the children remember their happiest memories of him The Author also works in Education and writes children s story books Pet Loss and Children Cheri Barton Ross,2013-05-13 Explaining the concept of death to a child is a very difficult confusing and uncomfortable experience for a parent educator or therapist and it is a topic that is often first introduced by the loss of a pet sometimes a child s earliest exposure to loss and grief There is an undeniably special bond that develops between people and their pets especially between animals and young children and while the death of a pet can be devastating to an adult children are often deeply affected by such a loss Without readily available outlets for their feelings the trauma of pet loss can remain with a child for life and without help many adults feel inadequate and not up to the task The aim of this book is to provide therapists counselors educators parents social workers veterinarians and physicians with resources to help children cope with the loss of a pet Children's Encounters with Death, Bereavement, and Coping Charles Corr,David Balk,2010-01-15 Children s Encounters with Death Bereavement and Coping is a very well researched document and well written by an impressive cadre of scholars The book is a must read for marriage and family therapists clergy and pediatric care givers whose work intersects the lives of children and the social and environmental systems in which they live NCFR s Certified Family Life Educators Newsletter F or the resource that offers one of the best bibliographies and guides to resources for the book that contains theory definitions treatment modalities helps warnings integration of people and programs cultural diversity when it comes to all of this we turn to Charles A Corr and David E Balk editors of Children s Encounters with Death Bereavement and Coping It is a book you must have on your shelf but don t let it sit there for too long without making good use of it Illness Crisis and Loss Current filled with sound theory wise clinical acumen sound research terrific resources and a multicultural perspective this book will be a necessary resource for clinicians and educators Kenneth J Doka PhD Senior Consultant The Hospice Foundation of America Corr and Balk s book will help adults find many ways to lead bereaved children to a hopeful belief in their future despite their considerable losses This book is a real contribution to the growing literature in this field Nancy Boyd Webb DSW LICSW RPT S Distinguished Professor of Social Work Emerita Fordham University Children struggling with death related issues require care and competent assistance from the adults around them This book serves as a guide for care providers including counselors social workers nurses educators clergy and parents who seek to understand and help children as they attempt to cope with loss This book comprehensively discusses death and grieving within the context of the physical emotional social behavioral spiritual and cognitive changes that children experience while coping with death The chapters also explore new critical imaginative conceptual models and interventions including expressive arts therapy resilience based approaches new psychotherapeutic approaches and more Key features Presents guidelines for assisting children coping with the loss of parents siblings friends or pets Discusses ethical issues in counseling bereaved and seriously ill children Provides guidelines for helping children manage their emerging awareness and understanding of death Emphasizes research based culturally sensitive and global implications as well as current insights in thanatology The World's Children and Their Companion Animals Mary Renck Jalongo,2004 The Pet Loss Grief Companion Melissa J. Rowen ,2025-08-17 The Pet Loss Grief Companion Tools and Comfort for Navigating the Pain of Losing a Dog Cat or Animal Friend with Hope and Healing A compassionate and science backed guide for anyone grieving the loss of a beloved pet because your grief is real valid and deeply human When a cherished dog cat or animal friend dies the grief can feel just as intense if not more than the loss of a human loved one Yet society often overlooks or minimizes this kind of heartbreak leaving pet parents to grieve in silence This book changes that The Pet Loss Grief Companion combines neuroscience emotional resilience and compassionate storytelling to guide you gently through the pain of losing your companion Whether your pet passed recently or long ago this resource offers enduring comfort practical support and a path toward healing Inside you ll discover A neuroscience based explanation of why pet loss hurts so deeply based on attachment and memory A unique five stage model of pet grief tailored to the emotional bond we share with animals Tools for managing daily routines without your pet and handling painful triggers like toys bowls or favorite spots Guidance on talking to others about your grief especially when they don t understand Activities rituals and memorial ideas to honor your pet and foster emotional closure Specific support for children surviving pets and those experiencing complicated grief or depression Help in deciding whether you re ready for a new pet without guilt or pressure What sets this book apart Designed specifically for disenfranchised grief the kind that society often ignores Includes real life stories and gentle exercises to support long term healing Whether you re mourning a dog who was your protector a cat who was your soul companion or a bird rabbit or reptile who brought daily joy The Pet Loss Grief Companion offers the comfort and clarity you need to navigate the pain and carry your love forward in meaningful ways Pet Loss and Human Emotion, Second Edition Cheri Barton Ross,2013-05-13 This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating increasing an individual s vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to

The Children Who Lived Kathryn A. Markell,Marc A. Markell,2013-03-01 Harry Potter s encounters with grief as well as the grief experiences of other fictional characters can be used by educators counselors and parents to help children and adolescents deal with their own loss issues The Children Who Lived is a unique approach toward grief and loss in children Focusing on fictional child and adolescent characters experiencing grief this book uses classic tales and the Harry Potter books to help grieving children and adolescents Included in the text and the downloadable resources are a number of activities discussion questions and games that could be used with grieving children and adolescents based on the fictional characters in these books Pet Care Givers and Families Robert Berkelhammer,2015-09-03 Full of concrete detailed examples of what pet owners can do to improve and empower their relationships with their pets this book draws on the author s experiences working as a pet care professional to provide advice about various services owners can access including dog playgroups dog walkers cat visitors and pet sitters Comforting the Bereaved Through Listening and Positive Responding Dr. Dee Stern L.C.P.C. PsyD,2022-01-27 We don t seem to handle grief very well whether it s our own or someone close to us Part of the problem is that we live in a death denying society where many people feel awkward using terms like death dying or dead We rarely say that someone has died and instead use metaphors to soften the blow This book helps families friends colleagues and professionals to understand what someone who has lost a loved one is feeling Topics include the death of a child teen adult older adult spouse sibling mentally challenged individuals death of a pet and pets grieve too The author answers questions such as Why are there fewer rituals surrounding death today What do you say to someone who has lost a loved one How long do the bereaved continue to grieve What does it mean to be going through complicated grief Grief is the great equalizer and no matter who or what we are or how rich or poor grief can bring us to our knees But you can navigate it in a healthier way with the lessons in Comforting the Bereaved through Listening and Positive Responding Dogs in Athenian Sculpture and Vase Painting of the Archaic and Classical Periods Katia Margariti,2025-05-15 This book analyses the iconography of dogs in Athenian art highlighting their roles as companions hunters pets and status symbols It explores their presence in various aspects of ancient Greek life their association with gods and heroes and their depiction in funerary reliefs reflecting the deep human canine bond Mourning Animals Margo DeMello,2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals Life after Loss Bob Deits,2017-05-02 One of the classics in the field of crisis intervention Dr Earl Grollman Life after Loss is the go to resource for anyone who has suffered a significant life change Loss can be overwhelming and recovery often seems daunting if not impossible With great compassion and insight Deits provides practical exercises for navigating the uncertain terrain of loss and grief helping readers find positive ways to put together a life that is necessarily different but equally meaningful With two new chapters and significant changes throughout reflecting Deits s ongoing experience in counseling Life after Loss is an essential roadmap for those in grief Lawrence J Lincoln MD Staff Elisabeth K Ross Center Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan Carolyn Ambler Walter,Judith L. M. McCoyd,2009-03-23 Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan represents a significant advance because it looks at the issues from a bio psychosocial perspective To a social worker who has worked mainly in a medical and nursing environment this is a great step forward Bereavement Care Offers valued sensitivities knowledge and insights and most importantly age appropriate interventions for a range of significant losses Counselors will want to keep this indispensable work close at hand Kenneth J Doka PhD Author Counseling Individuals With Life Threatening Illness By taking a lifespan view this book fills a gap in the literature on loss and grief and takes theory and practice in new and invigorating directions It will be welcomed by those professionals of all disciplines who daily listen to and help re write narratives of loss Jeffrey S Applegate PhD Professor Emeritus Graduate School of Social Work Social Research Bryn Mawr College A thorough thoughtful sensitive and up to date contribution that may be the best book available today for teaching bereavement grief and mourning Highly recommended for experienced grief professionals as well as for students Jeffrey Kauffman MA MS LCSW BD CT CAS BCETS Psychotherapist in private practice Philadelphia PA Walter and McCoyd have written a well organized and comprehensive examination of grief and bereavement that will be useful to the seasoned professional as well as the student new to grief and loss The historical analysis of grief theory from classic to postmodern is interesting reading and essential for a full understanding of grief and loss in modern society Paige E Payne MS MSW LSW Support Services Manager PinnacleHealth Home Care and Hospice Harrisburg PA Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan is unique in its treatment of grieving patterns and intervention strategies for different age groups With this book students and practitioners will learn how grief is influenced by biological responses to stress psychological responses to loss as well as social norms and support networks The authors utilize a developmental framework as each level of development from infancy through old age is addressed in four ways Reviews normal developmental issues abilities and challenges for the age in question Analyzes how individuals of each age cope with serious loss of a significant other and how they may experience life threatening illness themselves Examines how significant others react to and mourn the death of someone in that age range Identifies the normative losses a person is likely to experience and addresses protective and risky ways of coping with those losses The authors review important grief theories such as postmodern and Dual Process Theory and discuss current topics in grief including continuing bonds meaning making ambiguous loss and disenfranchised loss With the help of this book practitioners and students of grief counseling can learn to help patients of all ages understand that loss is at the heart of life and growth
