LIFTING UP THE SENIOR SPIRIT REV. JANET MITCHELL HISBON, 2012-06 The crocus flower bulb has special meaning for the design cover It was selected because it is symbolic of the act of lifting the Senior Spirit from the emotional dark cold winter season of an older adult's mundane and dull life to give birth to change and the springtime of a new way of life These beautiful blossoms breaking through the snow and ice represent the inner struggle that one encounters to bloom where they are planted What is happening to them is not mere happenstance something larger than them are at work within them Someone wiser than they are has a word to speak and that word is Yes to God's will and His way in their new life It is also a reminder of the death and resurrection of Jesus from the dark tomb to the newness of life Jesus rose that we may have life and that we may have it more abundantly So it is with Older Adults they rise to a better quality of life and at the same time preserve their dignity

Hess,2009-01-15 Paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry Unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today s religious ecology How may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Artisanal Theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination Part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship Just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education An artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice Ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the Triune God among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others The Pilgrim's Compass Paul H. Lang,2019-02-19 As we make our way into the twenty first century many Christians are looking for an expression of discipleship that speaks meaningfully to our time a faith yearning that is at once personally intimate and relevant and that grows out of and nurtures authentic Christian community The Pilgrim s Compass shepherds readers through a metaphorical pilgrimage to consider one s life a journey for faith formation Using this book as a guide to help Christians consider their journey as they walk through the four stages of intentional faithfulness disciples will encounter God wrestle with God be wounded as will God and be reborn as a new person with a new name The Pilgrim s Compass encourages individuals to embrace the ancient practice of pilgrimage both as metaphor for the daily walk of discipleship and as an intentional journey of faith which uses prayerful travel to assist an inner transformation To Tell the Sacred Tale Ruffing, Janet K., RSM,2011 This book shows the singular importance of narrative in the process of spiritual direction and reflects on this interactive process of sharing our sacred stories in pastoral contexts in order to hear and respond more deeply to the story God is telling in our lives Speaking Our Faith Kit Carlson,2018-03-17 Ways to help Episcopalians articulate and feel comfortable about speaking of their faith with others Today in a rapidly changing religious landscape the structures of Christendom which once almost automatically instilled faith in generation after generation of believers are gone. For faithful Episcopalians it has become essential to learn how to tell the old old story of Jesus and his love. This is especially important for those generations born after the Baby Boom which are experiencing the rapid rise of the nones people who have lost their faith or who have no faith at all. The time to speak to share our faith is now. Kit Carlson offers a road map for those who want to learn to speak about the faith that lives within them. Speaking Our Faith will help them put words to their own experiences of God, create their own statements of belief and to begin to have compassionate caring conversations with other people about spirituality, belief and Jesus Christ. Inside the Red Tent Sandra Hack Polaski, 2006-07-01. The story of Dinah receives little more than a mention in the Bible as it gives rise to a bloody massacre. Not so with Anita Diamant's The Red Tent. Picador, 1998. Diamant weaves ancient history and culture with narrative fiction to draw a picture of what life might have been like for the women in Jacob's life. With skill and passion Sandra Hack Polaski unravels the complexities of the biblical stories of Leah, Rachel, Zilpah, Bilhah and Leah's daughter Dinah, probing aspects of The Red Tent that give us insight into the text and into the lives of women in the ancient Near East. Inside the Red Tent brings readers into the biblical and historical contexts of the world of Dinah and her four mothers, exploring their stories through the tradition of midrash, sound biblical scholarship and archeological findings. She gives us a glimpse inside the red tent at the families' relationships, encounters, goddesses and God that defined their lives and that define ours. From the Popular Insights series. Please Don't Tell Emma J. Justes, 2014-03-18. I've never told a soul and you have to promise not to tell anybody. Pastor, I wanted you to know before we tell the kids just in case they come to you. I'm so happy. Yes, finally I'm pregnant. I just had to tell someone. Yes, it's terrible, but am I going to explain it to our friends here at church? People need trusted persons as sounding boards and confidants. Not many weeks go by that someone does not confide a secret to a church leader, whether pastor, youth director, church secretary, choir director or board member. While pastors have a unique role when it comes to confidentiality, listening to secrets is something that every church leader does. But there are both privileges and responsibilities in reporting, discerning the truth and helping people bear the deep sins or temper the anger that threatens to overflow. Fire in the Soul Richard L. Morgan, 2016-04-01. In discovering God's call at retirement, moving to deeper contemplation, accepting aging, discerning the meaning of stories, mentoring, facing loss and death, redeeming suffering, Morgan includes personal prayers most written after his own retirement as well as classic prayers from John Calvin, Saint Augustine, John Donne and Teresa of Avila. A constant spiritual guide for the later years. Enlarged Print. The Experience of Divine Guidance Mark Allan Kaplan, 2007. Original Gravity Mark Allan Kaplan, 2003. Finding God in the Graffiti Frank, Jr. Rogers, 2011-09-01. Finding God in the Graffiti encourages church educators, youth ministers and students of ministry to connect the living reality of God through the use of powerful stories and narratives that will engage the youth in their church or Christian organization. It will inspire readers with many ways in which stories can engage youth educationally, provides a conceptual map of discipline for teaching and learning purposes equips youth workers to practice a repertoire of narrative methods with young people and gives practitioners conceptual tools to reflect on their practice with insight and precision
