Remembering Gardens Stages And Travels:

Austrian Information ,1991      Remembering Gardens Kurt Klinger,1991      Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick,2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick s study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France s former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford s traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen s early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn s Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity      Poems: v. 1. Journeys of Remembrance Kathryn N. Jones, 2007 The Second World War was a common experience of cultural and historical rupture for many European countries but studies of this period and its after images often remain locked in national frameworks Jones comparative study of national memory cultures argues for a more nuanced view of responses to shared issues of remembrance Focusing on the 1960s and 1970s two decades of great change and debate in French and German discourses of memory it investigates literary representations of the Second World War and in particular the Holocaust from France and both Germanies The study encompasses thirteen works representing a variety of genres and divergent perspectives and authors include Jorge Semprun Peter Weiss Georges Perec and Bernhard Vesper Addressing the underlying theme of travel as a means of exploring the past it contrasts the journeys made by deportees and post war visitors to the camps with the use of the literary device

Pausanias : Travel and Memory in Roman Greece Pausanias, 2001-08-16 Pausanias the Greek historian and traveler lived and wrote around the second century AD during the period when Greece had fallen peacefully to the Roman Empire While fragments from this period about Pausanias Periegesis description of Greece is the only fully preserved text of travel writing to have survived This collection uses Pausanias as a multifaceted lens yielding indispensable information about the cultural world of Roman Greece

Designing a Garden Michael Van Valkenburgh, 2019-10-15 The intimate Monk s Garden at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston embodies the design principles that inform the work of noted landscape architect Michael Van Valkenburgh In Designing a Garden Van Valkenburgh presents the design of the Monk s Garden at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum an intimate walled garden that Laurie Olin has described as a masterpiece and not a minor one The book documents the evolution of the garden s design which is based on the concept of meandering paths through a dreamlike woodland to create a contemplative space Sketches and models show how the idea was worked out and lush photographs reveal the completed garden through the seasons Van Valkenburgh s text explores the origins of his love of landscape and plants in his family farm in Upstate New York and how this has influenced his intuitions as a designer He shares the full background story of the Monk s Garden focusing on the experimental nature of design work as well as the challenges and satisfactions of the small scale and the historic and cultural context Designing a Garden provides a unique first person account of the design process from the most prominent landscape architects in the country
