Reminiscences Of Fort Huachuca Arizona:

Reminiscences of Fort Huachuca, Arizona Joseph Dorst Patch, 1960 Memoirs Of A Chaplain Charles Wesley Pike
Chaplain LTC (RET) U.S. Army, 2019-03-07 This book was written as a result of many friends asking if I would share my experiences as a chaplain in writing This book will give you an idea of the many problems a chaplain faces as he ministers to the soldiers and their families As you read this book you will feel the intense pressure that a chaplain experiences as he walks through difficult situations with hurting people This book does not cover all the aspects of a chaplain s responsibilities As well as helping hurting soldiers and their families through difficult problems he spent many hours waling alongside the soldiers as they carried out their mission in protecting America He had the opportunity to conduct worship service for the soldiers and their families He had the opportunity to baptize new converts as they committed their lives to the Lord and then to lead them in spiritual growth I hope this book gives you encouragement if you have a family member in the Armed Forces that there are chaplains present to walk alongside and support them in whatever their journey brings them As you read this book I hope that you will feel the joy that comes to a chaplain when he experiences the positive outcome of helping hurting people This book deals with one chaplain s experience but let it be known that he does not accomplish it alone The chaplains are one family and they come alongside of each other to support the ministry to soldiers and their families From Cochise to Geronimo Edwin R. Sweeney, 2012-09-04 In the decade after the death of their revered chief Cochise in 1874 the Chiricahua Apaches struggled to survive as a people and their relations with the U S government further deteriorated In From Cochise to Geronimo Edwin R Sweeney builds on his previous biographies of Chiricahua leaders Cochise and Mangas Coloradas to offer a definitive history of the turbulent period between Cochise s death and Geronimo s surrender in 1886 Sweeney shows that the cataclysmic events of the 1870s and 1880s stemmed in part from seeds of distrust sown by the American military in 1861 and 1863 In 1876 and 1877 the U S government proposed moving the Chiricahuas from their ancestral homelands in New Mexico and Arizona to the San Carlos Reservation Some made the move but most refused to go or soon fled the reviled new reservation viewing the government s concentration policy as continued U S perfidy Bands under the leadership of Victorio and Geronimo went south into the Sierra Madre of Mexico a redoubt from which they conducted bloody raids on American soil Sweeney draws on American and Mexican archives some only recently opened to offer a balanced account of life on and off the reservation in the 1870s and 1880s From Cochise to Geronimo details the Chiricahuas ordeal in maintaining their identity despite forced relocations disease epidemics sustained warfare and confinement Resigned to accommodation with Americans but intent on preserving their culture they were determined to survive as a people Lt. Charles Gatewood and His Apache Wars Memoir Charles B. Gatewood, Louis Kraft, 2005-01-01 Realizing that he had more experience dealing with Native peoples than other lieutenants serving on the frontier Gatewood decided to record his experiences Although he died before he completed his project the work he left behind remains an important firsthand account of his life as a commander of Apache scouts and as a military commandant of the White Mountain Indian Reservation Louis Kraft presents Gatewood's previously unpublished account punctuating it with an introduction additional text that fills in the gaps in Gatewood's narrative detailed notes and an epilogue BOOK JACKET Oral History and Public Memories Paula Hamilton, Linda Shopes, 2009-08-21 Understanding how individual perspectives on history build collective memory Some Memories of a Soldier Hugh Lenox Scott, 1928 Memories and Pain Michael Ollerich, 2022-08-25 As I get older I can finally talk of some of my past So what should I do when many had listened to me and could not believe how dangerous and painful many things were to my sister brothers and me Finally I have decided to try and write them The memories were painful but now can be written maybe I had stopped 2 hours after I started because of the pain flooding in My sister Mary asked me if I had come to terms with my past and I said yes but the more I recall I have not come to terms with any of my shattered life Now 10 months into my project I have only made notes and a few lines I do not know if I can do this

Memories of a Tuskegee Airmen Nurse and Her Military Sisters Pia Marie Winters Jordan, 2023-06-15 A scrapbook can tell us much about a person's life or one period of someone's life joys and sorrows challenges and successes problems and solutions Memories of a Tuskegee Airmen Nurse and Her Military Sisters focuses on a four year period from 1942 to 1946 during World War II when up to twenty eight women from the Army Nurse Corps staffed the station hospital on the base where the future Tuskegee Airmen were undergoing basic and advanced pilot training These women were African Americans graduates of nursing schools throughout the country registered nurses and lieutenants in the U S Army Nurse Corps They were military officers and the pilot cadets saluted them Pia Marie Winters Jordan's mother was one of those angels of mercy Her mother the former first lieutenant Louise Lomax did not talk much about her ten years of military nursing but nonetheless her Tuskegee Army Flying School scrapbook told a story Although Jordan may have seen this scrapbook when she was much younger only when her mother became ill and had to be cared for in a nursing home did Jordan Louise's only child take a closer look as she began organizing belongings in the process of closing her mother's apartment Jordan saw that the Tuskegee Airmen were not the only ones making Black history during World War II nurses also had to fight gender as well as racial discrimination Through her research she found out more about them It was time for their story to be told The Oxford Anthology of African-American Poetry Arnold Rampersad, Hilary

Herbold, 2005-10-01 For over two centuries black poets have created verse that captures the sorrows joys and triumphs of the African American experience Reflecting their variety of visions and styles The Oxford Anthology of African American Poetry aims to offer nothing less than a definitive literary portrait of a people Here are poems by writers as different as Paul Laurence Dunbar and W E B Du Bois Countee Cullen and Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks and Amiri Baraka Rita Dove and Harryette Mullen Yusef Komunyakaa and Nathaniel Mackey Acclaimed as a biographer and editor Arnold Rampersad groups these poems as meditations on key issues in black culture including the idea of Africa the South slavery protest and resistance the black man woman and child sexuality and love music and religion spirituality death and transcendence With their often starkly contrasting visions and styles these poets illuminate some of the more controversial and intimate aspects of the black American experience Poetry here is not only or mainly a vehicle of protest but also an exploration of the complex and tender subtleties of black culture One section offers tributes to celebrated leaders such as Sojourner Truth and Malcolm X but many more reflect the heroism compelled by everyday black life The variety of poetic forms and language captures the brilliant essence of English as mastered by black Americans dedicated to the art of poetry Loving and yet also honest and unsparing The Oxford Anthology of African American Poetry is for readers who treasure both poetry and the genius of black America My Life as a Foreign Country: A Memoir Brian Turner, 2014-09-15 Brilliant and beautiful It surely ranks with the best war memoirs I've ever encountered Tim O'Brien author of The Things They Carried An award winning poet and former infantry team leader in Iraq Brian Turner combines his devastating recollections as Sergeant Turner with his visions of the experiences of generations of warriors in his family and even those of the enemy in a work of profound understanding and shocking beauty Sierra Vista Planned Community Mortgage Insurance, 1982 Memoirs of the National Academy of Sciences National Academy of Sciences (U.S.), 1924 Each volume comprises one or more monographs many of which are issued also as separates The Journal of Arizona History, 1985 Cultural Construction of Empire Janne

Lahti, 2012-12-01 From 1866 through 1886 the U S Army occupied southern Arizona and New Mexico in an attempt to claim it for settlement by Americans Through a postcolonial lens Janne Lahti examines the army its officers their wives and the enlisted men as agents of an American empire whose mission was to serve as a group of colonizers engaged in ideological as well as military conquest Cultural Construction of Empire explores the cultural and social representations of Native Americans Hispanics and frontiersmen constructed by the officers enlisted men and their dependents By differentiating themselves from these less civilized groups white military settlers engaged various cultural processes and practices to accrue and exercise power over colonized peoples and places for the sake of creating a more civilized environment for other settlers

Considering issues of class place and white ethnicity Lahti shows that the army's construction of empire took place not on the battlefield alone but also in representations of and social interactions in and among colonial places peoples settlements and events and in the domestic realm and daily life inside the army villages Negroland Margo Jefferson, 2015 The Anti racism collection has been created by Lethbridge Public Library and the City of Lethbridge Diversity and Inclusion Working Group to provide resources about anti racism education history and perspective Anti racism is defined by the Alberta Civil Liberties Research Centre as the active process of identifying and eliminating racism by changing systems organizational structures policies practices and attitudes so that power is redistributed and shared equitably Spy Sites of Philadelphia H.
