Renaissance Master Bronzes From The Coll:

Renaissance Master Bronzes from the Collection of the Kunsthistorisches Museum Vienna, 1986 Renaissance Master Bronzes Manfred Leithe-Jasper, Kunsthistorisches Museum Wien, 1986 Italian Renaissance and Baroque Bronzes in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Denise Allen, Linda Borsch, James David Draper, Jeffrey Fraiman, Richard E. Stone, Peter Jonathan Bell, Raymond Carlson, Federico Carò, Paola D'Agostino, Alex Foo, Claudia Kryza-Gersch, Fernando Loffredo, Tommaso Mozzati, 2022-06-15

he revival of the bronze statuette popular in classical antiquity stands out as an enduring achievement of the Italian Renaissance. These small sculptures attest to early modern artists' technical prowess, ingenuity, and desire to emulate or even surpass the ancients. From the studioli or private studies of humanist scholars in fifteenth-century Padua to the Fifth Avenue apartments of Gilded Age collectors, viewers have delighted in the mysteries of these objects: how they were made, what they depicted, who made them, and when. This catalogue is the first systematic study of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's European Sculpture and Decorative Arts collection of Italian bronzes. The collection includes statuettes of single mythological or religious figures, complex figural groups, portrait busts, reliefs, utilitarian objects like lamps and inkwells, and more. Stunning new photography of celebrated masterpieces by leading artists such as Antico, Riccio, and Giambologna, enigmatic bronzes that continue to perplex, quotidian objects, later casts, replicas, and even forgeries show the importance of each work in this complex field. International scholars provide in-depth discussions of 200 objects included in this volume, revealing new attributions and dating for many bronzes. An Appendix presents some 100 more, complete with provenance and references. An essay by Jeffrey Fraiman provides further insight into Italian bronze statuettes in America, with a focus on the history of The Met's collection, and Richard E. Stone, who pioneered the technical study of bronzes, contributes an indispensable text on how artists created these works and what their process conveys about the object's maker. A personal reminiscence by James David Draper, who oversaw the Italian sculpture collection for decades, rounds out this landmark catalogue that synthesizes decades of research on these beloved and complex works of art.

Waddington, 2004-01-01 Pietro Aretino's literary influence was felt throughout most of Europe during the sixteenth century yet English language criticism of this writer's work and persona has hitherto been sparse Raymond B Waddington's study redresses this oversight drawing together literary and visual arts criticism in its examination of Aretino's carefully cultivated scandalous persona a persona created through his writings his behaviour and through a wide variety of visual arts and crafts In the Renaissance it was believed that satire originated from satyrs The satirist Aretino promoted himself as a satyr the natural being whose sexuality guarantees its truthfulness Waddington shows how Aretino's own construction of his public identity came to eclipse the value of his writings causing him to be denigrated as a pornographer and blackmailer Arguing that Aretino's deployment of an artistic network for self promotional ends was so successful that for a period his face was possibly the most famous in Western Europe Waddington also defends Aretino describing his involvement in the larger sphere of the production and promotion of the visual arts of the period Aretino's Satyr is richly illustrated with examples of the visual media used by the writer to create his persona These include portraits by major artists and arti minori engravings portrait medals and woodcuts Private Collectors of Islamic Art in Late Nineteenth-Century London Isabelle Gadoin, 2021-09-09 This book examines British collectors of so called Persian art a broad umbrella term then covering a large portion of Islamic art in the late 19th century including ceramics metalwork
