The Modernization of Inner Asia Cyril E. Black, Louis Dupree, Elizabeth Endicott-West, Daniel C. Matuszewski, Eden Naby, Arthur N. Waldron, 2016-09-16 Inner Asia in premodern times the little known land of nomads and semi nomads has moved to the world's front page in the 20th century as the complex struggles for the future of Afghanistan Soviet Central Asia Tibet and other territories make clear But because Inner Asia as a whole is divided among several states politically and among area specialists academically broad perspectives on recent events are difficult to find This work treats the region as a single unit providing both an account of the region's past and an analysis of its present and its prospects in a thematic rather than a strictly country by country manner

Recast All Under Heaven Xiaoyuan Liu, 2010-08-12 Xiaoyuan Liu has provided a most compelling study of frontier in the shaping of modern China's territorial identity Ethnopolitics usually confined to the domestic sphere must now be recast and brought to the forefront of any attempt to understand China's international relations and vice versa Uradyn E. Bulag University of Cambridge UK In this collection of well argued essays Professor Xiaoyuan Liu offers an extremely valuable perspective on the evolution of China's geo body in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that is its evolution from an empire to a modern nation state This complex process involved a constant effort to reconcile the unifying impulses of the central government with the vibrant ethnic particularism that existed within China's constantly shifting borders Richard J. Smith George and Nancy Rupp Professor of Humanities and Professor of History Rice University USA In this illuminating set of essays Liu Xiaoyuan the master of China's frontier history and ethnopolitics ranges widely across the boundaries of space and time to examine how modern China came into being By emphasizing the seemingly paradoxical centrality of the periphery in the consolidation and legitimation of Chinese political authority Liu explains Beijing's concern about trouble on its Inner Asian frontiers and expands our understanding of China's modern history Steven I. Levine Senior Research Associate Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center University of Montana USA In applying the two interpretative themes of frontier and ethnicity Recast All Under Heaven examines the externalization from and internalization to China by a number of the tributary affiliates and outlying territories of the by gone Qing Empire This unique book blends analyses of domestic and international developments involved in China's modern reincarnation and provides an integral narrative that links historical themes pertinent to the eastern and western halves of China This is the first study contending that frontier China has remained a fitting characterization of the rising Asian giant
