Texians won their independence in 1836 religious congregations began to meet openly and to build houses of worship Most of these early church buildings were poorly built and did not survive the ravages of time Eventually stronger buildings were erected But even then with open fireplaces and wood burning stoves providing heat and candles or kerosene lanterns providing the primary source of light church buildings were often destroyed by accidental fires In addition with time congregations often outgrew their vintage church buildings or could no longer afford the high cost of maintaining the older outdated buildings As a result congregations abandoned them to erect larger and often more elaborate edifices Once abandoned the old church buildings were razed or if left standing rapidly deteriorated Over the past twelve years my wife and I have visited and photographed almost one thousand historic churches in Texas Photographing these historic church buildings and learning about the pioneers that often at great risk founded and maintained them has been a project of love Visiting these historic churches and meeting the people that maintain them today has been inspirational Daughters of Republic of Texas - Vol II ,2001 Sons of the Republic of Texas ,2001-12-15 The Sons of the Republic of Texas tells the story of the Republic of Texas beginning with its birth on April 21 1836 Includes a brief history of the Sons of the Republic of Texas from 1893 to the present The text is complemented by over 100 pages of family and ancestral biographies of members of the Sons of the Republic of Texas past and present Indexed A History of Texas and Texans Frank White Johnson,1916
